How good is it to say "CONGRATULATIONS" to our publisher, editors, son JAY, on his formal engagement to Alice Del Catillo of Los Angeles, a pretty gal. This son No. 2 who will be saying his "I do" shortly, Jack and Bea will gain daughter No. 2. You see, the Tells have three boys and always wanted a girl. The adage, when you have boys you gain daughters and vice versa.

If many of you don't recognize Ruth (Hy) Indes it is because Ruth cut her hair short, and isn't it most becoming? A change for the better my dear.

Time goes quickly and before you know it you will be sending New Year greetings to your family and friends. The B'nai B'rith women have as their project the most gorgeous, personalized cards which they are selling. If interested please get in touch with Sara Agron, Maxine Quinn and Bea David. Remember, time has to be allowed for the personalized printing, so don't wait for the last minute. These cards should be seen before ordering elsewhere.

DATES SET
Pat Ginn, No. 1 adopted son of the Israelite, will be married to Josalen Yung on Tuesday, July 23, 1968, Supreme Court Judge John Mowbray will perform the ceremony here in Las Vegas. Jay Tell, No. 2 son, will be married to Alice Del Catillo on Aug. 25, 1968, Rabbi Abraham Barnstein will perform the ceremony at Sportsman's Lodge in No. Hollywood, Calif.

Gals, sometime in August, (will give you the exact date in a later column) there will be a beauty symposium at the Desert Inn put on by the Revlon company headed by Mr. Lawrence. For the time being, if interested call Shirley Saxton at Magnins, 735-5511 ext. 04. All I can tell you at this time, is that it is worth your while to watch this column for further details and the dates.

Dr. and Mrs. Neil Strauss entertained their friends in their lovely home the other week end so that they could meet Joyce's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Jack

TWO MONTHS OLD
Michael Todd Sanzo, one of the most remarkable babies in the Israelite family, now tips the scales at nine pounds 13 ounces and is developing into a bruiser. His reflections are perfect, and he bounces around like he was six months old.

Visiting from Astoria, L.I. N.Y., is grandma Mary Sanzo, a delightful lady, whose charm and personality is brightening up an already friendly courtyard of neighboring families.

Lacowick from Philadelphia.

Elizabeth Kanter, sister in law of the bride to be, Lois Ellen Kanter, gave a delightful bridal shower in her honor the other day in the new International Country Club clubhouse. About 60 smartly, cool looking and attractive young gals and matrons attended. The luncheon was delicious (diets assure you were forgotten) and for dessert the guest partook of the bridal cake and Lois received lovely and useful gifts which will be a wonderful start in house-keeping for her and her hubby to be Jerold Hal Solomon. Much happiness was shared by Florence (Mitchell) Kanter, mother of the bride and Sylvia (Sam) Solomon mother of the groom. Nuptials will take place Aug. 11th. Ceremony will be at the Temple and reception following at the Caesars Palace. Much luck and happiness.

Birthday greetings to you Gemeni's; Fred Swartz and Michael Brookman.

Anniversary celebrations will be going on in the families of Jane and Al Benedict, lared and Claire Shafer. There's an excellent manicurist at "Zello's" pretty, blue-eyed Swedish and French, dark haired gal by the name of Winnie, who has been a resident of Las Vegas for sometime and manicuring for a number of years. She is fast and has a stupendous following. So while getting your hair restyled, treat yourself to a relaxing excellent manicure and meet pretty Winnie, who by the way is single. All the operators at "Zello's" are good.
