Irene Chenin, Billie Geller and Mary Lauber of the Bandwagon for Paul Price, who is on the ballot for county commissioner. (Add J.T. to that.)

A very happy birthday to Betty Hoffman, wonderful mother and darling (ask Lester, who is just a son-in-law) of Elsie Goldring.

Birthdays will be celebrated by Ivan Annenberg, Jeannie Messing and Elissa Agron.

Ruth and Al Levinson celebrating 43 years of wedded bliss.

Jean Robin looking very well after a vacation in Mexico. If you are out late and in the vicinity of the Dunes Hotel, stop in and see Jean (drug store) and buy a goodie at the same time.

Get well wishes to Lucille Mack. (Lou) hope by the time you read this, Lucille will be out of the hospital and home.

Michael Brookman sailing the seas on a freighter named "Hawaiian Merchant."

Hanna Clemens flying and I mean literally, into Los Angeles as she became a grandmother again. Daughter Judie, gave birth to a 9 1/2 lb baby boy.

Mel Golden's folks, Mr. & Mrs. Bucks (Frances & Harry) visited with Mel and Judy with the intention of making their home in Las Vegas, however regretfully, they decided to return to Boston where they have lived most of their life, because of climatic reasons. Needless to say, Mel and Judy are sad, they wanted them to stay, but health comes first. (Ed Note: Mel is an Israelite favorite.)

Steve Goot, stock broker associated with Goodbody Co., gave a most enlightening lecture, series of three, on his own time which proved to be most interesting. I took advantage of this and who knows someday the stocks I have purchased will in the future bring me a sizeable nest egg. It has for many I know.

Would like to add my congratulations to Pat Ginn and his bride Candy. Best of luck and much happiness always.

Betty Hoffman, Elsie Goldring's mama celebrating her 83rd birthday. Betty looks and feels wonderful which makes all who know her very happy.

Belated anniversary greetings to Senator Chic Hecht and his Misses. Many more, sir.

Lois Levine, now advertising director of the Mayco Valley Store. Lois is expected in town and you can bet she will get in touch with those she thinks a lot of. I for one am anxious to see her.

Jerry Shafer in town settling up the convention for Practicing Law Institute Members, could be Jerry will follow in the footsteps of his successful dad Lennie, VIP at the Dunes Hotel?

There will be a swim party at the home of Dr. & Mrs. Leonard Raizin, August 7, 2:00 - 4:00 PM for children 8 to 12 years of age. Free refreshments.

Our good friend, Henry P. Miller, who writes that snappy, readable column for the Las Vegas Voice, married Janeford Emerson of Las Angeles. We wish them all the luck.

NADINE UKEILEY WED

NADINE AND RANDOLPH

Miss Nadine Ukeiley, pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max (Ann) Ukeiley, became the bride of Randolph Stroud. The evening ceremony was performed by Rabbi Aaron Gold, assisted by Cantor Joseph Kohn, at Temple Beth Shalom with reception following at the Aladdin Hotel. About 200 guest attended. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and father. Nadine wore an original gown by Edythe Vincent, of silk organza, daintly touched with chantilly lace with an empress waistline, slight A line skirt with a high watteau back swinging into a deep cathedral train. It was purchased at Mel Aire Bridal Shop. Her full calais illusion veil was held in place by a cluster of hand made flowers to match the gown. Nadine carried a prayer book and orchids.

Her ladies in waiting wore sleeveless, formal gowns of silk organza over crepe, in the color of lime, with a deep swept neckline in fragile ruffles. Maid of honor and Jr. Bridesmaid wore yellow dresses. Their headpiece veils were held in place by a tiny bow.

Bridesmaids were Nancy Moll, of Las Vegas, and her sorority sisters, Roberta Roberts and Joan Whitebrook

Roberts and Joan Whitebrook from Tucson, Arizona.

Nobell Philabaum was the best man. Ushers were Robert Ukeiley, brother of the bride, Allen Roberts, of Los Angeles, Robert Headrick of Tucson, Ariz.

Out of town guests were: Aunts & Uncles, Nina & Arthur Lucas of Miami, Florida, Jack Stroud, John Smith and Jim Obey, Grandmothers, Peg Stroud and Hazel Stratton, Great Aunt, Mrs. Sturgeon, Great Aunt & Uncles: Ray Spaulding and Russell Stroud. Last but far from least, long time friends Phil & Bea Shapiro from New York City.

The mother of the bride chose radiant blue for her gown and the mother of the groom a soft sate of apple green.

Sasha Seminoff and his orchestra supplied the Danceable music (the traditional dances were danced with much zest by all the guests). The Hor D'Oerves, dinner, champagne, liquor and Dinner were delectable. This was a lovely, happy wedding. I am sure all the guests join me in saying "A very happy Mazel Tov, may your years together be happy forever", Mr. & Mrs. Randolph Stroud will make thier home in Tucson.

Thank You
TO ALL MY FRIENDS FOR THEIR LOVELY CARDS, GIFTS AND GOOD WISHES DURING MY RECENT ILLNESS.
