Dear Mr. Tell:

Monday mornings we receive your paper and have so much enjoyment in reading it.

We see items, as well as pictures, of people we met while visiting Las Vegas, including John's (Supreme Court Justice John Mowbray.)

You have always been so very kind to John, who, like his parents, appreciate it.

I am sure John will never forget his loyal friends in Las Vegas.

My husband joins me in our thanks and all good wishes to you.

Very Sincerely,
Nellie P. Mowbray
(Bradford, Ill.)

(ED NOTE: We appreciate the kind sentiment about the paper, "Mother" Mowbray, but it is we who should be grateful to you for giving us a son, "Big John" who has contributed so much to the welfare of our state, JT).

Dear Mr. Tell:

I do enjoy your paper very much.

Sincerely,
Joe Suid
(Las Vegas)

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Tell:

On the occasion of your son Jay's engagement to Miss Alice Del Castillo, Mrs. Kinnory and I send you our heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

May you have a lot of nachas.

Kindest regards,
Herman and
Gertrude Kennory
(Las Vegas)

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Tell:

Many thanks for receiving a well written paper.

With every good wish and success, I am,

Sincerely,
Charles Romanelli
(Las Vegas)

Jack:

Should have sent this subscription in long ago, as I read and enjoy your paper! Keep up the good work.

Thank you for the article you ran for me during the special session.

Sincerely,
Helen
(Sen. Helen Herr)

Dear Mr. Villa

The doctor and I should like to thank you for the excellent "Profile" you wrote on Gordon.

I think that a columnist who takes the time and patience to recognize the youth of our city has to be the greatest.

Your analysis was very perceptive and I especially appreciated the fact that for once, Dr. Fink was "just a father." (He did too.)

Gordon is a wonderful boy to raise even though he scares me sometimes with his confidence, tolerance and plain common sense. My husband and I both look on him as our parent. We are no way near so mature.

Thank you again,
Charlotte Fink
(Las Vegas)

Dear Jack & Bea:

Thank you for publishing Percy's excellent "Profile" of Gordie.

The interview was without our knowledge, so we were truly surprised when we read it.

Gordie is usually unimpressed by praise or recognition, but this story pleased him and his parents tremendously.

Stay as sweet as you are and continue to be fair and objective. I, for one, think you're great.

Charlotte Fink
(Las Vegas)

(ED NOTE: All children are born, and grow-up (brilliant observation), but when one in a million, like Gordie come along, the world should "thank God" for a mother like you, Charlotte, JT)

Dear Jack:

Received the paper and must say, as a newsgal myself, its quite a paper. Your story on Pat and Candy was beautiful.

I read every word in the paper so thanks again.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Betty Maier
(Las Vegas)

(ED NOTE: Thank you Betty, and get well real soon, J.T.)
