Reverence, not Revelry

There is a special uniqueness about Rosh Ha Shanah. It is considered a holiday and it marks the beginning of a new year, but it is distinctly different. There is no usual New Year celebration. Instead of revelry there is (Continued on Page 5)

EGYPT SETS ROSH HA ATTACK

LONDON (WNS) Egypt is planning to launch an attack along the east bank of the Suez Canal to coincide with the observance in Israel of the Rosh Hashana holiday, according to Jan Kimche, well informed journalist and expert on Middle East. Writing in the Evening Standard, Mr. Kimche said the move had the full backing and approval of the Soviet Union and that when it comes it will be due to the fact that Cairo considers the east bank of the canal to be held by "an astonishingly small Israeli force with only shallow trenches and virtually no deep defensive positions."

Meet a Man of "Class"

GUS

By JACK TELL

When a person being interviewed has very little to say you may be certain his story is exceptional. It took three years to bring the life of Gus Gluffre to you, and it was worth every minute of the time we waited. Most of you know Gus as a (Continued on Page 3)
