

BILL WOLF A REGISTERED BROKER AT EASTMAN DILLON

Dwight H. Gravett, Resident Partner of Eastman Dillon, Union Securities & Co., announced the graduation of William Wolf from Eastman Dillon's New York Training School and his entering the securities business as a registered representative.

Wolf, who attended eastern schools and colleges, is a 10 year resident of Las Vegas. He served in the armed forces during the Korean War, following which he held executive positions with two large hotels in Philadelphia and St. Louis, Missouri.

Wolf's most recent business activities in Las Vegas have been in the real estate field where he owned his own realty firm. He is a member of the Masonic order and has been active in civic and fraternal affairs since moving to Las Vegas. He is married and has two children, Karen and Kenneth. His duties with Eastman Dillon will include client counselling and account servicing.

Eastman Dillon represents a broad cross section of the stock and bond community, having been long-time members of the New York Stock Exchange and all major regional exchanges. Their offices now total 32 in the continental United States and offices overseas at San Juan, Puerto Rico and Paris, France.
