

Only in Vegas

By Helene Stadler

My apologies to Jerry Engel. It was brother Phil who was ill. Since I am mentioning the Engel brothers, it would be appropo to also tell my readers that brother Maury and his Sandy (both residents of Los Angeles) had a beautiful Bar Mitzvah for their first offspring Son David at the Temple Beth Jacob, with a luncheon following in the Ambassador Hotel. Bet Grandma Esther baked all the goodies that were served because she is "tops" in that field. I don't have to tell you the Nachis that was shepped by all of the family and their friends on this very joyful occasion.

Residents of some years in Los Vegas may remember the Prosins (Marion & Lou), they had twin sons both of whom are now doctors. Twin Michael recently married a Philadelphia beauty and that is where the wedding took place. Should Marion see this, please accept my congratulations.

Efficient, informative and congenial Joan Cohen who services the public by giving information and selling airline tickets for the Western Airlines, office in the Riviera Hotel. Joan's better half is in business for himself and they have resided in Las Vegas for about five years.

Reggie & Mace Sickle will be dancing at their sons wedding comes October 5th. Stephen will marry darling Marlene Gordon, from New York City, and they will make their home here in fabulous Las Vegas, Mazel Tov.

Don't forget to send out your New Year greetings this affords me the opportunity to wish you the readers of the Las Vegas Israelite, a very happy, healthy and wonderful New Year for now and always.

Being so very busy with company, taking some time out to loll on the beach in Malibu that I was remiss in wishing Jack and Bea Tell, Mazel Tov on their son Jay's marriage to Alice. So sorry.

Condolences to the family of Dora Cohen, former resident of New York City and a resident of Las Vegas for year. She is survived by her daughter Mrs. Taylor Wines of Las Vegas and a sister Annie Koone of New York City. Internment took place in Lawnsdale, Calif.

Ed Cocks, district manager, said. Reports may be made by mail, telephone, or personal visit.
