RAFAEL SIRKIS, NEW ISRAELI CONSUL IN L.A.

Mr. Rafael Sirkis has been appointed Consul for Economic Affairs and Director of the West Coast Regional Office of the Government of Israel Investment and Export Authority in Los Angeles. Mr. Sirkis succeeds Consul M. Arbell who returned to Israel recently.

Before assuming his present post, Mr. Sirkis, an electronics engineer, established and was head of the Instrumentation Development Department of Elta Electronics Industries at Lod Airport, Israel. He worked in the development of medical, nuclear and scientific instruments. Prior to that he served as a project engineer with the Sanborn (now called Waltham, Mass. Division) of the Hewlett Packard Company of Palo-Alto, California. He earned his B. Sc. degree (1962) in electronic engineering, from the Technion in Haifa and has M. Sc. degree (1965) from Northeastern University in Boston. Consul Sirkis holds American patent no. 3,300,799. "Three Dimensional Pictorial Displays", together with the Technion.

Consul Sirkis is looking forward to further developing the economic relations between Israel and the Western United States. His main emphasis will be on working out investment programs in Israel and the encouragement of exports from Israel.

Mr. Sirkis is accompanied by his wife and three children.

JERUSALEM (WNS) Formation of a "Scientists' Town" on the outskirts of this city by a group of 100 religious scientists in the United States was announced here by the Jewish Agency.
