Jay Sarno says that Circus Circus is going to change the living habits of a large part of the circus world and that I believe.

"Our Circus Circus is going to change the gypsy existence for many of the artists of the world's most famous acts," said Sarno. "There will be a large exodus from winter quarters in Sarasota, Fla., to Las Vegas, as many of the top acts will establish themselves here permanently."

I question if Disneyland or Ringling Brothers Circus will furnish you the thrills and surprises that Circus Circus will.

To Jay and Joyce Sarno, along with his backers and personal, our very best.

LOMBARDO SWEETENS TROP

"The Sweetest Music this Side of Heaven" wafts into the Blue Room of Hotel Tropicana Sept. 27 with Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians regally enthroned for a four-week engagement.

The Lombardo orchestra embraces four Lombardos - Guy, Carmen, Lebert and Victor. Other featured performers among the nostalgic monarchs are Kenny Gradner, Cliff Grass, the Lombardo Trio and the Lombardo twin pianos.

Lombardo's musical longevity, which has survived decades of trend and fads, revolves around his ability to select and record hits. Now a Decca redording artist, he has introduced more than 300 national favorites.

Added to the Royal Canadians for the Trop stop is Belgian beauty Tonia Bern-Campbell, widow of Britisher Donald Campbell, who died attempting to break his own speedboat record last year.

The vocal artist will be introduced to this country at Hotel Tropicana by Guy Lombardo, a friend of the late Campbell and a speedboat record-holder himself.

Rounding out the musical lineup in the spacious Blue Room will be the Lee Raymond Five, an exciting, young combination bound starward.

Lombardo's musicians will play a dance set at one AM Sunday through Thursday night and will add a second dance session at 2:30 AM on weekends.

Additionally, the Lee Raymond Five also will play for dancing, with initial sets at 11 PM nightly in the Tropicana Blue Room.
