SECRET LETTER TELLS OF IRON COUNTRY ANTI-SEMITISM

NEW YORK - Jewish intellectuals in Vilna have appealed in a secret letter to the Lithuanian Communist Party for the right of Lithuanian Jews to emigrate to Israel because "we are not wanted here."

The letter was made public by the Academic Committee on Soviet Jewry. It is the first written protest against Soviet anti-Semitism by Jews living in the U.S.S.R. that has come to the attention of Western observers, according to Prof. Nathan Glazer of the University of California, newly-elected chairman of the Academic Committee.

Prof. Glazer described the request to emigrate as "unique and unprecedented." The letter said in part:

"If the borders would be opened for emigration today, some 80 per cent of the entire Jewish populace would leave Soviet Lithuania and depart for Israel." (Continued on Page 3)

At a press conference sponsored by the Academic Committee here, Prof. Glazer showed newsmen photostatic copies of the original letter, dated Feb. 15, 1968 and addressed to "Comrade A. Snieckus," first secretary of the Central Committee of the Lithuanian Communist Party.

Prof. Glazer said a copy of the letter was smuggled out to the West some time ago.

The letter did not list the names of the 26 signers of the letter on the ground that "we know well how people who had protested against flourishing anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union at one time or another were summarily dealt with."

In releasing the letter, Prof. Glazer also announced the launching of a campaign for 25,000 signatures from American university professors calling on Soviet (Continued on Page 3)

TELL TALES

"One Man Plus The Truth Constitutes A Majority"

BY JACK TELL

HHH All the Way

Anyone who's been to the horse races will tell you that when a stretch runner catches up with a pace-setter the race is over. From then on it's just a question of how much the late-comer will win by.
