ENDORSEMENTS OF EDUCATORS

The Professional Educators of Nevada (PEN), Clark County Teachers Union announced their endorsement of political candidates, at a special session of the organization's executive board at which time President Howell Orr urged that the membership "actively support the endorsed candidates with time and effort from now until the polls close on election day". Names of the endorsed candidates appear as follows:

STATE SENATE #3
Helen Herr
Floyd R. Lamb

STATE SENATE #4
John Casino

ASSEMBLY #4
Eileen B. Brookman
Richard H. Bryan
Rober Cummins
George L. Harmon
Norman Ty Hilbrech
Harry M. Reid

ASSEMBLY #5
Austin H. Bowler
Mel Close Jr.

Orr pointed out that "the endorsed candidates who are incumbents have shown by their voting record that they are concerned with quality education and the plight or our classroom teachers. The other legislative candidates who received endorsements are those who, in their respective campaigns have shown a true understanding of the teachers problems and are sympathetic to our cause, while also being concerned with quality education in our classrooms". In referring to the endorsement of Sandra Lawlor for the State Board of Regents, President Orr acknowledged that "Sandra's outstanding record as a professional educator and realization of the problems facing Nevada Southern University where the determining factors in her selection as a pen endorsee".

In discussing the organization's endorsement of Robert Reid for the position of District Court Judge in Department #3, Orr remarked that "Reid's position on the necessity for a juvenile court judge to devote his time to the juvenile court before he turns to other types of cases and his stand for total involvement of the juvenile court judge along with law enforcement agencies, schools, the church, and volunteer adult organizations determined the endorsement in this case."
