

Only in Vegas By Helene Stadler

Condolences to the family of Abraham A. Lublin, age 55, popular local attorney. Internment took place in Woodlawn Cemetery, services were conducted by Rabbi Aaron Gold and Cantor Joe Kohn. Abe, as I always called him, was a former resident of New York City and a resident in North Las Vegas at the time of his demise. He was a member of Temple Beth Shalom, North Las Vegas Neighborhood Council, NLV Moose Lodge, NLV Optimist Club, Sharam Lodge F&AM New York, New York Philletas Lodge F&AM, Masonic Order and the Nevada and New York American Bar Association. He is survived by his wife Irene, a son Seth Lee, a daughter-in-law Ora Lena, and two daughters Myna Elissa all of North Las Vegas and Ina Joy of Phoenix, Arizona. May you rest in peace dear Abe.

To answer some of the questions re the past presidents of B'nai B'rith Womens

Chapter #415 Ellen Bromberg, Mardee Gutterman and Etta Harmell are past presidents, but not of this Chapter. Sallie Gordon was the first BBW president of the Las Vegas Chapter. All in all there are 25 past presidents.

Aside to Link Kramer: Would appreciate news of the goings on in the B'nai B'rith Womens Chapter. Since you are the Publicity Chairman, I would appreciate the cooperation. Thanks.

Dr. & Mrs. Edward (Charlene) Kazel, niece and nephew of Sylvia Sirotta, are parents of papoose #4, a medella. They are residents of Los Angeles who get the paper and know many residents here in town. We all join in, in saying "Mazel Tov"

The community mourns with the family of Philip Rosen, 61, of 2001 Constantine. Formerly from Ohio, Philip and his family resided in Las Vegas for the past 14 years. Burial will be in Mansfield, Ohio. He is survived by his wife Marian, a daughter Jo Ann Kalish of Mansfield, a brother Don of Akron, Ohio and three grandchildren.

Good to see Mrs. Marty (Joyce) Goldberg keeping herself busy. Selling to Women in a store located at Fashion Square Shopping Center, in the vicinity of a very fine beauty shop, Zello's.

Barbara (Hank) Greenspun was one of the top finishers in the Paradise Valley Country Club Women Golf Association's President Cup Tournament. She came in third with a score of 225.

The myth of getting furs wholesale by going to the manufacturers in Los Angeles, is here and now exploded by Al Kirschner, whose Master Furriers shop is located in Somerset Shopping Center on Convention Center Drive. Al offered a real low, priced buy on a fur coat to a long-time Vegan, who decided to check with a wholesaler in L. A. After hearing a description of the garment, the wholesaler called Al, who shipped it to California, where the "smart" woman paid $500 more for the exact same garment. Now she parades around thinking she got a better coat at a bigger bargain, while Al keeps muttering, "Poor Soul."

You've heard Jack Tell often rave about the out-of-this world Italian meals at Bombara's Gourmet Room. He insists its positively the best food in Las Vegas, and that's saying a mouthful in a town where gourmet rooms are a dime a dozen. Now something new had been added, with Maestro Ennio Bolognini, founder and conductor of the Las Vegas Philharmonic, giving impromptu concerts on his famous cello every Monday evening. Ennio, a 75-year-old kid, whose Godfather was Toscanini, duets with former Metropolitan Opera singer Carlo Bombara, a mere 80-odd, in arias from Rigoletto, Carman, etc., that put the frosting on the delectable dishes. Give yourself a treat. Helen Weisberg and Nita Walker, were the charming hostesses for the bridal shower given in honor of Tobe Mae Gleeman, very pretty, cameo like, daughter of Harry and Joe Gleeman. Tobe, her mother and future mother-in-law, Norma Shores, greeted each guest as they arrived. This elegant party was held in the International Country Club. The favors, centerpieces for each table and the huge beautiful satin dressed bridal doll, were made by Nita. The party continued long after some of the guests decided to leave. Good luck again, to you Tobe. Keep smiling always.
