

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

NEW YORK -- Undeterred by recent disturbances in the Middle East, 17 American students from Muskingum College in New Concord, Ohio, left on January 5, with Israel National airlines El-Al flight to Lydda, to spend 17 days in Kibbutz Yotvatah near the Red Sea port of Eilat and to tour the country for another two weeks.

NEW YORK, -- Word was received by the American Jewish Committee of the recent death in Germany, at the age of 43, of Dr. Eleanore Sterling, an author and educator who was the Committee's correspondent in that country since 1958.

GENEVA (WNS) -- The cantonal court of Lausanne, Switzerland, had ordered all printed copies of an anti-Semitic book destroyed and has required the author to pay court expenses. The book, "The Past, The Present and The Jewish Question" was written by James Albert Mathez.

CHICAGO (WNS) -- Professor Norman Golb of the University of Chicago has reported the discovery of manuscript evidence of the existence of a medieval center of Jewish learning and culture in Rouen, once the capital of Normandy in France.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The 385-bed hospital of the Albert Einstein College of Medicine of Yeshiva University and the 773-bed Montefiore Hospital, both located in the north Bronx, have merged.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The Union of American Hebrew Congregations (reform) plans to publish a series of books to explain Judaism and the Jewish viewpoint on critical problems facing the community such as war, sex and drug abuse.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Finance Minister Zeev Sharef has submitted a "war budget" of $2,243 billion for fiscal 1969 to the Knesset (Parliament). The budget, to take effect April 1, is $350 million higher than 1968 and earmarks 37 percent of the total for direct military expenditures.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Striking New York longshoremen are working the Biafra relief ship Forra in Brooklyn despite their current walkout.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The Jewish Agency Executive had adopted a record $375 million budget for fiscal 1969 beginning April 1, $55 million greater than 1968.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The total immigration to Israel from the United States and Canada in 1968 was 5,090, double the 2,402 figure for 1967.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Israeli and Lebanese representatives have held meetings on the border between the two nations on ways to improve the observance of cease fire.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- A record number of tourists, more than 432,000, spent $90 million, also a new high, in Israel in 1968, according to Tourist Minister Moshe Kol. He said this represented a 33 percent increase in tourists and a five percent hike in spending over 1966, the previous peak year. One half of the visitors came from Europe and one third from the United States.

JERUSALEM (WSN) The Jewish National Fund has begun planting Israel's 20th anniversary forest along the former Israel-Jordan armistice line and expects to have more than 500,000 saplings under cultivation when the presenting planning season ends.

TORONTO (WSN) -- Toronto Jewry bought more than $1 million worth of Israel Bonds.

banon for the purpose of sucking their blood on the Jewish Passover."

In a revival of the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, Saada satates that "every Jew hopes for the collapse of all other religions so that Judaism should reign supreme."

In a press conference at the American Jewish Committee's national headquarters two leading Christian clergymen criticized the "unfairness" to Israel of world opinion on the Middle East conflict. Dr. C. Douglas Young, president of the Institute of Holy Land Studies, and Father Bruno Husar, director of Dominican House of Studies in Jerusalem, agreed that this slant in favor of the Arabs could lead to disaster in the Middle East.

Rabbi Tanenbaum is president of the Interreligious Foundation for Community Organization, a coalition of Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, and black community organizers working on behalf of ghetto dwellers. Chairman of the Interreligious Liaison Committee of the American Jewish Relief Effort for Biafra, Rabbi Tanenbaum has been active in the interreligious and interracial ecumenical movement.
