

LAS VEGAS SHOW EAST

PROFILES

by Percy Villa

If Harley Harmon or Harry Levy run for any political office they can count on our support.

Kathryn Grayson and Howard Keel are the reasons for those capacity crowds at the Fremont Hotel. (If you're over forty you'll love every minute of their singing.)

Max Goot sold his vending business, lock, stock and barrel, to the W. & W. vending and now is employed as a salesman.

Physiognomists say if your ears are set high on your head, it indicates that you're a highly-practical, commonsense type.

Famous Last Words: "Aw, you don't need a doctor - just take my advice and you'll be rid of your cold overnight."

Jimmy Pappa is the reason the 'Bingo Room' is doing such great business at the Silver Nugget.

My doctor friend says that worry is so injurious to the health because it effects the circulation, glands, nervous system, brain and heart. (Now stop that worrying, all of you!)

"Wingy" Grober, Caesars Palace exec., is resting and getting along fine after a brief illness at his suite at C. P.

Talk about knowing how to enjoy life: Bob and Milesa Sadoff, have a beautiful home in Las Vegas, and an equally attractive one in Beverly Hills, with a weekend hide-away in Mt. Charleston. Bob is the producer of the hit 'Tom Jones' show at the Desert Inn.

Cleverest Xmas card we received was from Bob and Helen Cannon, a four-pager called "The Cannon Report."

It is a safe wager to say that "Many Happy Returns" at the Desert Inn will stay until next year about this time. Seems as though any show with the Frank Sennes touch is a success.

Sudden Thought: Death and taxes may be inevitable but at least death doesn't get worse every time Congress meets!

I Feel Like Saying: One of our finest citizens is mine and your friend ED COCKS, Social Security District Manager. He has been my friend for a number of years and will be yours too once you meet him.

I greatly enjoyed reading Dr. Charles West's editorial in his 'Vegas Voice' last week. Good reading for all Americans and more so if you're an Israelite.

Loved every word of Joe Delaney's swelagent feature story on Charlie Kandel last Sunday. Wish there were more people like Charlie around.

Joe Crowley offers these famous last words: "This is the first time I ever played the stock market and I'm a few hundred ahead already. Now I'm going to invest some real money."

Walter L. Fitzpatrick of the DESERT Inn, did a masterful job for the opening of "Many Happy Returns". It was a black-tie affair and the invitations were out of this world. (Invitees will always treasure it)

Our sympathy goes to Ron Amos (PR man for Caesars Palace) upon the passing of his beloved father.

Carousel's Marty Kutzen, rates as one of our finer citizens. Setting up scholarships to Negro students - well, he always gave people a helping hand.

See ya next week.
