

OF THE STARS

Good Morning and welcome to Las Vegas Nite Life: Vic Damone is currently headlining at the Frontier and for anyone who truly enjoys perfection, a visit to his show is a must. Vic does a few of the tunes of yesterday and brings you right up to date with the sounds of today. All the musical arrangements are superbly handled by Vic's musical conductor Joe Parnello. On drums for the first time with Vic is our own Joey Preston one of the greatest drummers of all time. The 17 piece orchestra is a show in itself and was contracted by local musician Carl Lodico.

John Kane one of the waiters at the Flame is ailing at So, Nevada after a very bad accident on the Freeway. Bob Coldren one of the Floor Men at the Sands was very surprised last week when he was presented with his award, he was selected as floor man of the year by his superiors Bucky Harris, Sam Kinnerman, Leon Levy and Jesse Prehn. This marks the second award for Bob, two years ago he was selected as Box Man of the year. We were very saddened to learn that the Mother of Mickey Kulwin of T-Bird Jewels had passed away, Mickey flew to Chicago for her burial.

Don and Marga Lucas back in Las Vegas after a trip to L.A. for a visit with Marga's parents. Don used the trip for a double purpose and handled a photography assignment while there. Caught the Ella Fitzgerald show at the Flamingo and it was a gass. I could listen to her for hours on end. Nita Cruz has a fantastic revue in the Flamingo Lounge, she's a real talented beauty who sings and dances with all the charm in the world. Esquivel currently appearing at the Nugget in Sparks has five more weeks with the Stardust and then he starts to look for a new home with his group.

Thanks to Dr. Herb Rowe for putting my back in shape so I could drive to L.A. What a trip, five hours of steady rain. I should have left the back alone and stayed home. The Horseshoe is running a month late with their remodeling, but when completed it will be a real first class place to dine and visit. The new dining room has a New Orleans touch. Joe Devito who is a brother to one of the Four Seasons reports that the top recording group will soon put in an appearance at the Sands.

Susan Hayward is back in the saddle again portraying Mmae twice nightly at Caesars Palace. She was out for a week due to a foot injury. She has about forty costume changes in the show and someone stepped on her foot in the darkened wings. Ralph Cowan, the portrait artist, has a beautiful life size oil painting on display at Caesars of Miss Hayward.

Local songwriter and publisher Mike Corda very excited about super star Lou Rawls selecting one of his tunes for his latest album. Jerry May and Frank Abel have decided to go their separate ways in their agency. Each will have an equal amount of accounts. Local store Wonder World will be seen in an upcoming segment of the Name Of the Game. The store was used for some location shots.

Little Toni Bulli out of the hospital after a bout with Asthma. Paul Perry of the House of CM is back on the job after a slight heart attack. Gordon Fink starts his third year as a guest sports announcer on G. L. Vitto's sports show.

Gordon started his weekly appearances when he was only thirteen years old, and his knowledge of sports is amazing. His father is the popular local medic, Dr. Joseph Fink, who is also the house Doctor for Caesars Palace. Bill Noonan of the Fremont is showing our great city to his mother Ginger who is visiting from Stuebenville, Ohio. Chris Corey who holds down the afternoon slot on KORK Radio is really picking up a lot of listeners with his quick wit and clever ways of presenting a radio show. (and publisher Jack Tell is anxious to do a story of him)
