WOODY HERMAN SWINGS AT CAESARS PALACE

Big band great Woody Herman and his "Thundering Herd" swing into the Nero's Nooklounge at Caesars Palace Friday, February 14, in a debut opening promising an exciting combination of the old and new Herman sounds.

Although Woody has been one of the most widely acclaimed and respected big band leaders throughout the world for over thirty years, he does not live in the past world of nostalgia. He, instead, keeps his fourth "herd" in a constant "with-it" attitude, maintaining pace with the most musical jazz innovations.

As one critic put it, "Woody has maintained his great popularity because he

LONDON AT TROP

Smokey-voiced Julie London, one of the few name vocalists who packs blues, jazz and rock in her talent bag, unwraps this Valentine's Day package Friday in the Blue Room of Hotel Tropicana.

This three-week headlining stint in the plush Blue Room marks the fourth Tropicana date for the diminutive doll, who returns to Las Vegas from a three-month tour of the East.

Her vocal charms during this tour were featured at New York City's Waldorf-Astoria, at the Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D.C., and on the Johnathan Winters network TV show.

and the herd communicate with the parents who are in their 30's, 40's, and 50's, and also with their kids who are today's -- and Woody's-generation."

They're in for four weeks. Opening on the same bill with the Herman Herd are exciting young singer Angelo Picardi, appearing at Caesars Palace for the second time; popular jazz musician Jimmy Smith, well known for making the Hammond Organ the newest major instrument in the jazz family, and the vibrant young "Mame and the Kukesetters."

The four acts join Kirby Stone, an unsinkable talent of long standing in the entertainment world, who is back in Nero's Nook with an entirely new Kirby Stone company.
