HADASSAAAAAH

The Las Vegas Chapter of Hadassah Women have completed plans for their regular monthly meeting, which is being held at the Mesquite Club, 702 E. St. Louis, Las Vegas, on Monday, February 17, 1969, at 8:00 P.M.

An entertaining and interesting program has been arranged, which will feature an exhibition of the paintings of five Hadassah members. Mesdames Harry Kerzog, Hyman Bedol, Eli Gray, Joseph Chenin and Tommy Callahan. Also featured will be a series of slides, with narration, entitled "The Jew In Art," which indicates the contributions of the Jew to the culture of the World in Art, from the days of the ancient, to the present of Chagall and Epstein.

Mrs. Sigmund Stein, Program Chairman, announces that the new wvning time has been selected, so that this fine program will be available to the husbands and guests of the members. The public is invited, and refreshments will be served.

The Winberger home was the place to be this past week end as the 50th Birthday Party for Lloyd Katz (surprise) was held there and it was a party of parties.

The Nate Marshes celebrate their wedding anniversary on Feb. 16.

The Patrons Society of the University is comprised of men and women who are not only leaders in the communal life of their respective areas, but have also made their mark in its commerce, industry and in the professions. These dedicated laymen are concerned with the day-to-day maintenance of the University of Judaism as well as its growth and expansion.

At the special Friday evening service the Las Vegas members of the Patrons Society will be awarded the Patron's Album, a gift from the University of Judaism consisting of a selection of fine works of art. Those receiving this artistic collector's item will be Hank Greenspun, Jerry Zarowitz, Daniel Stein, Carl Cohen, Charles Rich, Sidney Wzman and Nathan Adelson. The presentation will be made by Julius Fligelman, Chairman of the University Board of Overseers, a long-time community leader in the city of Los Angeles and noted West Coast industrialist serving as Chairman of the Boards of the Los Angeles Period Furniture Company and the Executive Life Insurance Company.

Mr. Fligelman will arrive in Las Vegas on Wednesday, February 12 with David Gordon of the Department of Development of the University, to discuss important University matters with the local leading citizenry.
