TELL TALES "One Man Plus The Truth Constitutes A Majority" BY JACK TELL

Luce publications.
 If this was the first time those degenerate mags or their chief supported the Communists, we'd chalk it up to the one mistake anyone could make. But it happened twice in the past, and being charitable in our protests, we conceded some right of freedom of the press. Now it is taking place again, for the third time, only in this case we're catching it WHEN the abominable practice is being performed and not AFTER the confession of being a Commy spy and not AFTER the public apology of the acknowledged mistake in supporting the Reds.

In April, 1964 (for another publication) we wrote the following article under the headline:

LIFE IS JUST A BOWL OF COMMIES

C. D. Jackson, a publisher of Life magazine, publicly announced to 15,000 persons assembled in Hollywood Bowl and to untold millions watching on television that his magazine made a mistake in blasting an anti-Communist society. "Regrettably, my own magazine misinterpreted the statements of Fred C. Schwartz and his organization (California School of Anti-Communism)," said Jackson. "We were wrong and we are profoundly sorry."
 He was sorry, the man said. Sorry!

A magazine that plays so important a part in swaying public opinion comes up with a whopper on so serious an issue as Communism and the man says he's sorry. How many thousands of lives were snuffed out because Life magazine unwarrantedly created an erroneous and fictitious impression of our fight against the Reds? How many millions more will be dead - decent young Americans because the Luce empire wanted to maintain subscribers and add new readers? Is this crime against humanity, which is not punishable by law due to our freedom of speech rights, forgivable in the moral sense?

But let's not be too harsh in our criticism. After all, a mistake was made and admitted publicly. Let us be kind and lenient in our feelings concerning acts of our fellow men. Every man is entitled to at least one mistake in a lifetime.

BUT THE LUCE EMPIRE IS A SECOND OFFENDER.

The public may have forgotten but the records are very clear in the Whittaker Chambers case, Chambers, a confessed member of the Communists Party from 1925 to 1938, as an editor and an underground spy, joined the staff of Time magazine in 1939 and became senior editor for Life earning $30,000 per year. Here is a top level executive for Life magazine involved in stealing secret documents of the most confidential nature from top-guarded U.S. files and turning them over to the Commies.

How many more mistakes is the Luce empire entitled to? Who is plotting right now in their air-conditioned offices to wreck our country? What genius of the type-writer is preparing a blast at our country, subtle or otherwise, and at the same time preparing his alibi or apology? Makes one wonder.

Now the Luce publications are actively engaged in denouncing the only Democracy in the Mideast, America's only ally, surrounded by hordes of Russian-supported Arabs. This attempt to influence U. S. foreign policy comes at a time when the Four Power parley is being organized, and when President Nasser of Egypt (in a Newsweek interview) stated the only peace in the Middle East could come about if a new Palestine state was established and only if the Jewish state disappeared.

This latest un-American display by Luce is part of a pre-conceived, pre-meditated plot in the overall plan to undermine our way of living and deliver us to Communism. What else?

ANGRY FATAH FACES IN NEW YORK
 EQUATING ZIONISM WITH NAZISM ARE THESE MEMBERS OF THE ARAB ACTION COMMITTEE IN NEW YORK, PROCLAIMING THE FATAH TERRORIST ORGANIZATION AS BEING "FREEDOM FIGHTERS".

Army of Punks

Time Magazine devoted a cover story to the Fatah. Huge space is often given over, in the western press to the young boys being trained by Fatah as an 'army of liberation'.

The entire Fatah movement is being clothes in a mystic aura of respectability - an army of "freedom fighters".

But the facts are clear: it is an army being trained to place bombs in school buses, crowded marketplaces, theaters and in Jewish holy places.

It is nothing but another illusionary Arab "army" and more of its members are today sitting in Israeli prisons than are training in the hills of Transjordan for "der tag".

They have been stopped in their tracks in the Beit She'an Valley. No longer are Fatah incursions a threat there.

When they shoot up an Israeli market, or hurl a grenade upon a shrine such as that of the Tomb of the Patriarchs - they are hunted down with inexorable skill, their houses blown up and they begin sitting out their fanciful "war".

The fact is, the Fatah is directed against Israeli women and children, who are usually defenseless.

When Fatah raises its head within Israeli territory - the "army" becomes a bunch of girls screaming that Iraq was "right" for hanging the Jews.

During 1968, 38 civilians were killed by Fatah raids in Israeli areas (including a number of Arabs!) while 11 Israeli soldiers lost their lives in direct confrontations. Tragic as these figures may be - Fatah hardly counted when losses are compared.

Fatah may mean one thing to the authorities in Transjordan while they strut around on the east bank of the Jordan river.

When Fatah crosses over...it becomes an army of punks.

Hail, Hal Wallace

by RABBI SAMUEL SILVER

I take my hat off to Hal Wallis, Hollywood Producer. Recently he sent the following letter to Life Magazine in reply to an editorial urging greater U.S. support of the Arabs. A member of Temple Israel, of Hollywood, Wallis sent a copy of his letter to the Temple bulletin from which we reprint it:

Sir:
 Your editorial November 22 "reappraising the Middle East" might well have been written by Al Abram in Cairo.

I take exception to the immorality expressed in your observation that "the Arabs are forty times as numerous, have nine times the Israel GNP and represent an incalculably greater amount of U. S. investment potential as well as actual." Therefore, according to your way of thinking that is where our interests should lie. It is a tragic state of affairs when an opinion maker such as Life relates all elements to where the best deal can be made rather than humanistic and idealistic considerations. Is our foreign policy to be based on where is the greatest GNP? And what is meant by "We have not and should not commit ourselves to any and every adventurism that Israel might be tempted to." Do you really believe the Israelis are playing games or enjoying adventures? Do you really believe they set out to "adventurism" with the enormous cost in money and lives it entails and which they can ill afford, because they enjoy it?

I take exception also to your dogmatic statement "they also include the integrity of the Arab boundaries that Israel has violated ever since the June war." Your head must be buried deep in the sand, Arabian sand, or surely you would have heard or read in your own magazine of the Fedayeen, El Fatah, the lionizing of the Jordanian commandoes who daily raid Israeli villages, killing innocent people and, together with their Egyptian counterparts, continue a constant reign of terror on Israeli territory. Why the, "the Arab boundaries that Israel has violated ever since the June war?"

I have not previously seen so biased an editorial in Life. And it is to be hoped that U. S., foreign policy will continue to be made by the government and not by Life.

Yours truly,
 Hal Wallis

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Rabbi Jacob J. Hecht, executive vice president of the National Committee for the Furtherance of Jewish Education, a Lubavitcher organization, has called for the formation of "truth squads" composed of lawyers, educators and religious leaders, to answer anti-Semitic attacks from militant Negroes.

TORONTO (WNS) -- A number of Canadian Jewish leaders have voiced fears for the future of that country's Jewish community. They noted that the growing separatist movement -- particularly in Quebec - and the rise in black anti-Semitism in some cities such as Halifax are trends toward a dis-unification of the nation and Jews are the minority group that suffers first.

WASHINGTON (WSN) -- Congressman James C.orman, California Democrat, has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives to provide United States technical and financial assistance to Israel in the construction of a nuclear-powered water desalination plant.
