PROFILES

by Percy Villa

About three years ago George Franklin, the District Attorney of Clark County, Nevada, introduced my 'Profile' for today, and said 'Percy, I want you to meet one of our nicer people, and my friend Deputy District Attorney, Jerry Kaufman.

Those who have known him, and the many people who will come to know him in future years, will agree that he is a brilliant young man, as you will learn by reading this column today.

Jerry was born in Cleveland, Ohio, on September 3rd, 1935. He migrated to Los Angeles, where he spent 18 years. It was George Franklin who gave Jerry his start in Las Vegas three years ago. In 1967 he joined the partnership of Close, Bilbrary & Kaufman.

Before us, we have a man of higher education. He graduated from Fairfax High School in Los Angeles, with honors. For his extra-curricular activities he was President of Paragons' and Paragon of the Year', captain of the baseball and the basketball teams, President of the letterman's club, assistant sports editor, contributing editor of the Year Book, and a member of the Boy's League Cabinet.

Jerry attended the University of Southern California and the University of Arizona. He attended and graduated from the California Western School of Law in San Diego, California. Jerry has a BS degree in Metallurgical Engineering, and a Juris Doctor Degree in Law.

He is five feet, five inches tall, an even 140 pounds with brown sparkling eyes, and married to the attractive Elaine Burns, with a lovely, lively three year old daughter, Sandy. Jerry tells me his marriage to Elaine is the best thing that ever happened to him ('She has a calming influence on me"). The Kaufman's own their own home at 617 E. Oakey Boulevard, and they are expecting a little bundle of joy next month.

Jerry searches for integrity and sincerity in friends ('I don't care whether they are successful or well-known or what their profession is, that isn't the important quality of a friend').

Jerry is a perfectionist, who makes unrelenting demands upon himself. He is filled with a driving energy ('There are never enough hours in the day to get everything done'). Besides his law practice, which is exacting and fulfilling, he teaches business law, real estate law and criminal law at the University of Nevada at Las Vegas.

His hobbies are also exacting and strenuous, being skiing, golfing and tennis.

Jerry is a 'belonger', such as the Elks, Masons, Eagles, Rotary, National District Attorneys Association, Clark County Bar Association, American Bar Association, Footprinters, Fraternal Order of Police, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Boy Scouts of America, Business Law Professors Association, Member of the Temple Beth Shalom and the Men's Club.

His partnership with Mel Close, Jr., the former speaker of the Nevada State Assembly, and presently the minority leader of the Assembly, and James H. Bilbray, Regent of the University of Nevada System, has been a successful relationship. Their elegant suite of offices are now being expanded to add several new attorneys. Art Olsen will be the first to join this law firm as an associate.

We like Jerry, You will too.
