EDDIE FISHER SOCKO AT FRONTIER HOTEL

The appeal of Eddie Fisher seems undiminished as, once again, he is locking up Las Vegas audiences in his umpteenth appearance in that famed city, and his fourth stint in the Frontier Hotel's Music Hall. Again teamed with comic Guy Marks, Fisher's humble manner, his anticipated medleys and standards, and adaptations of current hits are surefire programming, and entertainment director Frank Sennes is content knowing that he's done it again. Even Eddie's wide reputation as a non ad-libber seems to help him, as he somewhat awkwardly attempts a few jokes, or recounts some experiences. It doesn't come off as intended but the audience doesn't seem to mind. Maybe he's smarter than we think.

AT NEW CASTAWAYS

GORGEOUS DIMENSIONS of Pat McPherson compliment the clever commentary as the tale of Tom Jones unfolds twice nightly at the new Castaways. Shows are 10 p.m. and 2:30 a.m. nightly, with a third showing at 12:30 a.m. on weekends.
