MEIR (Continued from Page 1) that preceded her nomination, MRS. Meir has indicated that she favored Acting Prime Minister Yigal Allon as the interim government head. But she was put forth as the candidate who could avoid a show-down struggle between Mr. Allon and his chief rival for the Premiership, Defense Minister Moshe Dayan.

Past statements by Mrs. Meir indicate that her policies would be the same as those pursued by Mr.

Eshkol. She was one of the late Prime Minister's closest advisors and fully supported his foreign policy program, including Israel's view of the key to a Middle East peace -- direct negotiations with the Arab leaders.

Once she is selected as the new Government head, Mrs. Meir is believed to want to hold the post only until the new Government is elected. Many political observers believe she will try to aid Mr. Allon in his quest for the post.
