

JERUSALEM (WSN) The German Trade Union Bank plans to invest $25 million in various Israeli enterprises, including a chain of popular priced tourist hotels.

NEW YORK -- The American Jewish community's investment in Jewish Community Centers and YM & YWHAs has quadrupled in 20 years, the latest Year Book of the National Jewish Welfare Board reveals. In 1946, the Jewish community had a capital investment of $30,000,000 in Center facilities and local annual expenditures for Centers were approximately $8,000,000. In 1966, twenty years later, the capital investment in Center facilities had grown four-fold to $120,000,000, and the expenditures for operations in that year were $37,000,000.

JOY HAMANN PRESS PREXY

HERB Klein, Communications Director for the Executive Branch of the Federal Government and top press aide during President Richard Nixon's recent campaign will be featured speaker at the annual installation banquet of the Las Vegas Press Club, it was announced today.

JOY

Klein, former newspaper editor and reporter, will speak at the April 5 event slated for the Sands Hotel. The banquet is open to the public, with members of the Las Vegas Press Club having first call on available tickets. Joy Hamann, incoming president, said.

Reservations for the event will be taken at the Las Vegas Press Club headquarters, in the South Pacific Restaurant on Convention Center Drive, between 4-9 p.m. daily starting Monday, Mrs. Hamann said, and are payable in advance.

Proceeds from the banquet go to the Press Club's Journalism Scholarship Fund, Mrs. Hamann added.

A no-host cocktail party is scheduled for 6:30 p.m., prior to the 7:30 p.m. banquet, in the Sands grand ballroom.

LONDON (WSN) -- Yusef Khamis, a member of the Ma'agan Party and of the Executive of Histadruth, Israel's labor federation, told a British audience in London that only direct negotiations between Israel and the Arab states could end the Middle East crisis. He declared that a solution imposed by the Big Powers could not bring peace to the area.

LONDON (WSN) -- The Zionist Federation of Great Britain and Northern Ireland marked its 70th anniversary at its annual conference in London.

WASHINGTON (WSN) -- One hundred and twenty Israeli pilots are in the United States to receive flight training for the 50 F-4 Phantom jet fighter-bombers that Israel has purchased from the U.S. The training will be given at the George Air Force Base near Victorville, Calif.

PHILADELPHIA -- Alfred L. Atherton, State Department specialist on Arab-Israeli affairs, and Gen. Uzi Narkiss, who commanded the Israeli forces which captured the Old City of Jerusalem during the Six-Day War, are featured speakers at the organizing meeting of B'nai B'rith's 23 member Cabinet of Israel Affairs.

TEL AVIV (WSN) -- Israeli war hero Major Mordechai Bahamin who shot and killed one of four Arab terrorists who attacked an El Al airliner in Zurich, Switzerland, received a hero's welcome when he arrived in Israel after Swiss authorities released him on $24,000 bail. He pledged that he would continue to fight in Israel and the Israeli Government of absolute right assurances, if a trial is convened.
