

Only in Vegas By Helene Stadler

What a gay time everyone had at the Bar Mitzvah party for Andrew Scott Levy son of Alvin (I was to his Bar Mitzvah) and Louis Levy, which incidentally was his birthday too. Grandparents Jeanne & Harry Levy, Ida Ziegler naturally were bursting with pride. Many of the family from out of town came to Shep Nachis, among them were Mr. & Mrs. Art Turk and family (Alvins sister) Lois's brother Jerry Greensweig, Mr. & Mrs. Paul Rubin, Dr. & Mrs. Goldbert, Mr. & Mrs. Dave Dubin, Mr. & Mrs. Marty Sklar, Mr. & Mrs. Lou Sklar, Mr. & Mrs. Bill Levy, everyone looked lovely. The cake decorated beautifully, was delicious (strawberry shortcake) there was plenty to drink and the assortment of dinner drinks was welcomed too. Most touching was the candle lighting ceremony which was led by Andrew's three sisters, Francine, Jodi and Peggy (all dolls). May you always have much pleasure from Andrew who recited the Havtara so well.

The Pacesetters Committee who worked so hard to make their luncheon a success showed that hard work paid off. Prosperity was noted as this fund raising affair used to be $3750, price more than doubled. One saw gals at this luncheon who shunned away from the other affairs. Suggestion should be always make your committees very large and everyone along with others will show. Guest speaker was Lt. Col. Doni Shapira Israels Chief test pilot who enlightened the attendees with Israels welfare needs which they were helping to meet. Some of the committee members were mesdames Jack Laxer, Neil Galatz, Victor Schiller, Herbert Waldman, and Dave Messing. Affair was held in the Bacchanal Room of Caesars Palace.
