

Barney Glazer's "HOLLYWOOD HOTLINE"

Theodore Bikel may have lost the motion picture role of Tevya to Topol, the Israeli actor, but for consolation Bikel heads up "Fiddler on the Roof" in Hawaii, as he did recently in Las Vegas - an excellent performance, by the way... Marilyn Cooper, leading lady in Jackie Mason's Broadway show, "4 Teaspoon Every Four Hours," is the niece of the late celebrated singer Belle Baker, famous for her "Yidisha Mama" rendition, and star of the Orpheum and Keith - Albee circuits. Billy Glason, himself a star of the same bigtime circuits and now a comedy writer in New York, trained Marilyn when she was a child. TALMA MACHNES, freelance makeup artist for Israel Television in Tel Aviv and Jerusalem, visited Hollywood recently to attend a two-week makeup seminar at the Max Factor Salon... Glenn Ford and Producer Gene Lester will film a television special in Israel... The two sons of Sammy Davis Jr. and Mai Britt now attend Hebrew School. THE TELEVISION industry is working quietly but forcefully to erase the big lie that the Jew headed the slave racket and is now blaming it on the white race. Watch for the corrective propaganda subtly flowing in upcoming stories on TV ... Although he is busy preparing a fall play, "Bright Tower," for Broadway, Dore Schary remains highly active as National Chairman of the Anti-Defamation League, all of which left Dore no possible time to accept an offer to run for Congress in New York.

TONY SANDLER'S and Ralph Young's act includes the following story by Young, about the Israeli soldier who chased 500 Arabs, finally stopping and yelling, with upraised fist, "You're lucky my husband wasn't here, too!"... Ralph does his Yiddishisms so great, anytime he decides to break up the singing act, he'll give us another Myron Cohen.

NO, PEOPLE, Mike Frankovich, who is married to Jewish Binie Barnes, is not anti-Semitic, even though his call sheet one day for Columbia's "Cactus Flower," read, "Hire 25 mod type guys." Turned out that Mike had actually asked for 25 boys... Andre Previn, who shook his fists at the Nazis while he was fleeing from Germany with his parents when he was nine years old, recently returned to Berlin to shake something else - a baton - while he conducted the Deutsch Philharmonic Orchestra.

BRINGING Israel's tv up to date: It's a government owned system, begun less than one year ago. It broadcasts in Hebrew and is on only two hours a day, three days a week. Programming features news, variety shows and some films. Due to its infrequency on the air, the station hires only approximately 200 persons. However, in the near future it plans to feature more diversified programs six days a week (but never on Shabos.)

AIR FRANCE advertises, "Yes, the same excellent service, the same fine Continental and kosher cuisine that you find on our flights to Israel, you'll discover on our flights to the Caribbean, too." I wonder if the line uses hijack cheese in its blintzes... Meanwhile, Allitalia, not to be ignored, advertises, "Chutzpah - that's what it takes for an Italian airline to add more flights to Tel Aviv (they should only fly fighter planes to Israel and leave them.)"

DID YOU know that John Ford, who refers to himself as a "shabos goy," is one of the few non-Jews on the Brandeis board?
