EGYPT FIRING (Continued from Page 1)

Mr. Thant's warning was rather an attempt to have both sides halt further artillery exchanges and removal of observers was the only weapon that the UN has to use against Israel and Egypt. It was noted that Mr. Thant's removal of UN personnel just before the Six-Day War was a controversial move that has been cited as contributing to the war.

Israeli efforts to discourage Egyptian artillery attacks by its raid against poer installations and a dam along the Nile River were viewed as unsuccessful. The very next day an exchange of fire resulted in the death of six Israelis and President Gamal Abdel Nasser pledged in a May Day speech to continue to hit Israeli forces along the canal and to also retaliate against civilian targets inside Israel if
