PHILADELPHIA (WNS) -- Rabbi Arthur Bilbert, dean of the new Reconstructionist Rabbinical College has urged Jewish Community centers to remain open on the Sabbath to service "the needs of those who do not hold to Orthodoxy."

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Israel has opened the sixth hostel in Jerusalem for the retarded, thirty adults who have an IQ of more than 50 and who can partly care for themselves but are a burden on their families when they live at home, will be sheltered at the hostel.

NEW YORK -- Twenty-nine Jewish cadets will be commissioned as officers at graduation exercises on June 1 and June 4 at the five United States service academies, Rabbi Edward T. Sandrow, chairman of the National Jewish Welfare Board Commission on Jewish Chaplaincy, announced. At special baccalaureate services, the graduates will be presented with inscribed copies of the Bible, as part of the year-round religious program provided at the academies by Jewish chaplains recruited, endorsed and served by the Chaplaincy Commission.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- The Smithsonian Museum of Natural History is displaying finds from excavations at Masada and the Bar-Kochba caves, including mosaic floors from Herod's palaces, scrolls, jewelry, coins, lamps, cooking utensils, clothing and Roman catapult balls fired at the Jews of Masada by Roman legions. The exhibition, on display through July 20, was brought to Washington through the efforts of the Israel Exploration Society in Israel and the Jewish Theological Seminary of America in New York.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The New York City police report that policemen dressed in the traditional Hasidic grab and wearing long beards have reduced the number of attacks on Hasidic Jews in Brooklyn and the Lower East Side.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Political observers believe that Israeli Premier Golda Meir will visit Washington sometime next month to explain Israel's position on a Mideast peace settlement with the Arabs directly to President Richard M. Nixon.

PARIS (WNS) -- The first sign of a possible thaw in Franco-Israeli relations was indicated by reports that Israeli Aircraft Industry Officials had been invited to send observers to the Paris Air show to be held at the end of the month. The invitation was extended after Charles de Gaulle resigned as French President.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The New York Federation of Reform Synagogues has prepared a kit on Selective Service and its Alternatives to provide information on the Jewish point of view on war and peace and the draft.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Full diplomatic relations has been established between Israel and Singapore.
