KIRSCHNER OVERS KABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

ed. You will have a full coverage of this great new how in next week's column. Incidentally both Variety and the Hollywood Reporter said the show was great at Melodyland.

The Sand Hotel: "AND AN ANGEL SINGS" that is truly an evening with Diahann Carroll. Even the Boozers and the Losers don't have to be hushed when she starts to sing. She is not just good-she is great. Some of her songs leave you with a tingling feeling. Some leave you in such a romantic mood that many of the sentimentalists in the audience find themselves reaching over to hold hands with their own wives. Well (talking about my Mir0 iam) she is not hard to take. When you visit the Sands ask Jackie Heller to tell you the story about the guy that took his wife everywhere, he couldn't stand to kiss her goodbye.

I apologize to King Sinatra that I couldn't rave about his wonderful tenure at Caesars Palace. I promise to make it up next time if I can squeeze into the showroom, I saw his show. Well all I can say is that he is no longer just an entertainer, he is a master of everything he attempts. This is why every ambitious showbiz hopeful tries to emulate SINATRA.

I can only add a few words to this overlong commentary on Vegas Showbiz. Mr. Nathan Jacobson who was the moving influence in making Caesars what it is today has decided that his new Bonanza Hotel will be a winner and to prove his point he has selected America's favorite Cowboy as his opening headliner. Mr. Dale Robertson never lost a fight in any of his Movie or T.V. performances. As an old time gambler I have to stick with a winner and unless the competition brings in a bunch of Indians and a roomful of guys that held up Wells Fargo Stages -, The Bonanza is a sure winner. I'm sure that if I'm not there opening night it would be because I couldn't get a reservation.

MORE KABARET NEXT WEEK.

Happiness is a visit to the Tropicana Hotel - to see the world famous "Folles Bergere". This was my third visit. The wonderful food, the beautiful costumed and uncostumed girls should be enough for anyone's perfect evening. Now the show is perfection plus, because they have added Davis and Reese. Laughter, good music, good food plus beautiful girls. What more can we rounders ask for. If you should happen to stop in at the Tropicana Blue Room you'll feel anything but Blue because Cugat's there. The Tropicana is a real Fun Stop. The Davis and Reese antics are more than just funny they are hilarious.

Ray Charles opened at the Frontier Hotel last night. We went to press too soon and couldn't write an honest review before the show open-
