MULLEN FOR JUDGE

Many of us know R. E. "Moon" Mullen, candidate for Municipal Judge. Those who do would vote for him regardless of what might be said here.

Some may not know him, or have forgotten his accomplishments, and it is for those people that this primarily is written.

Born 38 years ago in the small farming town of Hastings, Nebraska, to the only Negro family in the community, Mullen saw extensive service in the Korean Conflict, in which he was wounded three times in combat. After his honorable discharge, he came to Las Vegas and joined the Las Vegas Police department, later becoming a deputy sheriff. He continued his education at the University of Nevada; joined the juvenile probation department, as a probation officer; then, in 1963, under Judge David Zenoff, he was appointed Chief Probation Officer and Director of Court Services, a position held by him for more than five years. As well as administering the county juvenile program in this capacity, Mullen long functioned as juvenile traffic judge.

For his work in the community, particularly with youth, Mullen has received numerous honors. He is a recipient of the NCCJ Human Relations Award, as well as having received the "Distinguished Service Award" for 1963, as this community's "Outstanding Young Man of the Year." He was selected by the Nevada State

"MOON"

Jaycees, to represent Nevada in a national competition held to determine the country's "Ten Outstanding Young Men."

In short, "Moon" Mullen

has done much for this city, and, while he has received plaudits, this is the first time he had had to appeal for aid to the citizens he has been aiding for years. His background, in human relations, law enforcement, and administration, we feel, eminently qualifies Mr. Mullen for the office he seeks. We need men like "Moon" Mullen in public life, and they cannot remain in public life without our support. They must rise, or fall back, and it behooves us to see that they rise, when the appropriate occasion presents itself. For Mullen, that time is now.
