KIRSCHNER OVERS ABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

I am fortunate that my better half (eh) hates to cook. Incidentally her chicken soup with matzoh balls is good. One friend claims that Miriam's chicken soup can even cure penicillin. Well I had to decide on a dinner spot and the Crystal Room at the Desert Inn was our first stop. How about that Desert Inn? They trap you. Pancho the Maitre De makes sure you are comfortable then they start you with wonderful food. After that they serve you a big portion of Chucles with Bob Newhart followed by the Bouncy tunes that Teresa Brewer puts out. My wife decided she wanted to see the Kids Next Door so we forced our way into the Lady Luck Lounge and there was Ray Anthony and his Bookends.

We followed the crowd to the Desert Inn Sky Room where Murray Arnold and his group makes you want to move your feet, Believe it or not I saw many a man dancing with hi wife (like Chicago). Just to list a few there was Joe Delaney with his Ravishing Roberta, Marty Nathanson (commander of the Jewish War Veterans) and his Vivacious Vivian, Milton Frank (Frontier Credit Man) and his Adorable Ann, and would believe Bennie Peters (Pit Boss at Caesars) and his Terrific Trudi. Bennie surprised me I didn't know he could dance. I am ready to go home because lovable I am but young I am not. When she pops up with "I'm hungry". Well I don't enjoy sleeping on an empty stomach so off to the Tower of Pizza where Bobby and Jasper touted me on Steak Pizzalola, I venture to say this was the best tip I had all week, how do you say delicious in Jewish (Machia). That stop at the Frontier last night to hear Lottie Jones was certainly worth while, Mel Young the Maitre De in the Circle F Lounge made us come in and he was right. She is great. We decided to visit downtown as we do every week, and tried to pass the El Cortez. The crowds pushed us into an exciting evening.

a hair raising experience!
