Altho Sophie Katzman was an original committee member when the pre-school at Temple Beth Sholom was organized, 1952, she is no longer connected with the pre-school, so do not call for registration, answers to your questions etc. If interested call Helen Grafman who is most gracious and she will be happy to help you.

Excellent Secretary of Temple Beth Sholom, Shirley Milam, has resigned by choice and will take a much needed vacation with her family by visiting relatives back east. She will be gone about a month and if anyone is in need of a secretary please keep Shirley in mind as she is and will be a credit to any company, corp. or organization where professional help is needed. Temple will really miss this gal as good help is hard to find. So -----?????

Mort & Reba Saiger will be grandparents sometime in the late fall. Daughter Debbie and her husband Mark Skurow will be the stars. Must also mention Mark's wonderful parents Tobe & Joe who too will become grandparents for the first time. Best wishes to all.

Glad to let you all know that Heiden Ratner is doing very nicely and is out of the intensive care section of the hospital. He had many scared but all the prayers of his long line of friends were answered. Son Mark took excellent care of the business and so Heiden had no worry in that department. A very speedy recovery to you Hy.

Sisterhood of Temple Beth Sholom will hold installation luncheon June 11, Wednesday noon. Past President and Temple Board representative Anne Pink will be the installing officer and Jean Weinberger will read a scrip adaptation of "Daughters of My People." Hope to see you there.

So happy to let my readers know that Blanche & Myron Friedman are happy to announce the engagement of their daughter, pretty gal Betty Lou, to Julius Harris Cohan, son of Mr. & Mrs. William Cohan of Miami, Florida. A fall wedding is planned. Mazel Tov and much nachis always.

Jewish War Veterans Auxiliary is having a first in Las Vegas. A duplicate Mah Jong tournament. There will be cash prizes and all monies raised will go to the child welfare program here in Las Vegas. No money will be sent out of town, which is so very important to know. "Charity starts at home." This organization has also purchased "Happy Talk" tapes which enables servicemen overseas to talk to their families as a means of communication. So if you are a Mah Jong player make your reservations. Affair takes place June 17th at Temple Beth Sholom. Call Sylvia Sklar 735-3071 or Hazel Handelman 384-7172.

Sholom Secunda, recognized as one of the world's foremost composers and conductors of Jewish liturgical music, will be the honored guest at Friday evening Services, June 6th, at Temple Beth Sholom.

Mr. Secunda will conduct the Temple adult choir in a special performance of his own compositions of the liturgy. Rabbi Aaron S. Gold will officiate the services, and Cantor Joseph Kohn will lead in the chanting. Services commence at 8:30 p.m.

Mr. Secunda's career has extended into many realms. He is the composer of over 60 operettas and more than 10000 songs, including the ever-popular "bei mir bist du schoen."

The public is cordially invited to attend.
