icated old time girl (watcher) admitted that he followed a good looking female for 1/2 mile. When he finally caught her he forgot why he was chasing her. Judy Bayley at the Hacienda Hotel tries to make everyone feel at home. This reporter's stop at the Hacienda was timed just right. We caught Nuncie (topless) Price just before she left for her 10 day vacation. The Top Bannanas in this show breaks you up with laughter—especially Hank Henry and his crazy moves.

I like the reply my Mir-lam gave me last Friday when I didn't like the looks of her Gefilte Fish. It was, a Jewish Classic "If you want good looks I'll cook for you a Gold Fish." While I was busy chasing those beautiful Indian Cocktail Girls at the Bonanza Hotel my better half who had been panning for gold in the pan room grabbed me to hear Kirby Stone and his great sounds. I claim Kirby in the Corral Lounge of the Bonanza sounds better than when they appeared at the T-Bird and at Caesars. Mr. Stone's choice as entertainment director was a wise one. The Home team at the Bonanza is a Powerhouse. Combine Nate Jacobson, Lewis Kurtz, Jess Marcum, Frank Widmann and Artie Selman and you have the friendliest people in town. Warning to the young ladies who read this column. Mark Berent is in Vegas vacationing with his father Bobby. He's a Morris Harvey College man. MORE KABARET NEXT WEEK.
