

8 PM & MIDNITE SHOWS FOR "THE MADAME" AT THE FOX

When the curtain rings up on June 18 to the world premiere of the musical comedy, "The Madame," the Strip resort will again join the ranks of hotels in this entertainment capital of the world featuring both dinner and midnight performances. Jess W. Hinkle, the Thunderbird's vice president and general manager, announced that all entertainment activity is being shifted to the resort's newly remodeled Continental Theatre with a seating capacity of 400-plus.

"The new - look Continental Theatre actually will swing into action daily at 2 p.m. with the presentation of the popular "Pardon My Can Can," commented Hinkle. "Following a 4 p.m. performance of 'Can Can' the room will be made ready for the 8 p.m. dinner presentation of "The Madame" and the action will continue throughout the night with Pat Moreno's "Artists and Models," a midnight production of 'The Madame' plus other entertainment on the big program."

Cast of the fast-moving musical comedy, including London's top female performer, Delphi Lawrence, arrived in Las Vegas and began final rehearsals.
