KIRSCHNER COVERS KABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

Hey you want to laugh. Go see Gene Baylos in the Sahara Casbah. On or off stage Gene tickles your fancy - make sure your wife isn't fancy because he'll go out of his way to tickle her.

That voice - That voice- That Beautiful Voice. That's Rouvaun. The Casino de Paris show at the Dunes was always a favorite with we girl watchers. Now it has become a haven for music lovers. His beautiful voice brings back memories of Caruso and Lanza. Call Murray Moskowitz early if you want a reservation.

Did you know they have a Fountain in the Blue Room at the Tropicana Hotel? Pete Fountain that is. For real wonderful New Orleans Jazz you have to hear Pete's toe tapping sounds. I liked it. That's why I've been there three times and will be there again this week end.

That Circus Circus is a must. When we get out-of-town visitors that is the first place they want to visit. Their new talking computer is just about ready I don't want to miss this.

I was married in February and my Miriam asked me would I love her as much in December as I do in February. I replied I'd love you more because there are more days in December.

I suggest you make sure to catch Richard King at the Lady Luck Lounge in the Desert Inn. I heard him. He outs out some real good sounds.

We must thank Ralph Pettillo the Panorama man for plugging Kirschner's Kolumn in the Israelite. The fact that he likes what I write proves what I always said "Ralph has good taste."

Just received a phone call from the famous band box "Billy Gray". He claims he just broke some teeth on a tacos - a likely story. He'll be here soon to make the comedians laugh.

Just got the word that this weeks card game is at my house. My wife was worried about the food problem, I solved it by having Pat Ginn at Pat's Chinese Kitchen take care of the situation. P.S. I saved money.

I love this. When Sol Wolfe asked his secretary 'get my broker right away' and she says 'which one stock or pawn?'

The Frontier Lounge is a must for the stay-out-laters. Vi Velasquo is a sure bet for stardom. Not only can she sing any type of tune. She is also beautiful from head to foot.

Sheila Goodman has opened a new business called Talent Unlimited. I had to pick this information up from my good friend Morris Goodman in BEVERLY Hills yesterday. MORRIS IS Sheila's father and he claims she can't miss.

Tammy and Zeke Swearingen (he's my favorite dice dealer at the Sands) talked to us into an evening of good dancing fun in the Desert Inn Sky Lounge. Tammy and I have been friends for a long time I won't mention how long. Get Tammy to tell you about her new mink coat made by me. She designed it herself. She has good taste that's why she came to Master Furriers (thats me).

You have got to see that new show 'SKIN' at the Sahara. However if you don't like girls, fun, humor, pass it by.

This reporter met a lot of nice people in his lifetime. I just want to say that when Pete Bonmarito LEFT the other day something great in this world died. I'll miss his friendly handshake and his wonderful smile. So long Pete - I'll see you upstaris.

The show times for Divin Sara Vaughan at the Bonanza has been changed to 10 p.m. and 1:45 a.m. We better show up in time.

I get a kick out of Western Airlines. As their service gets worse their prices go up. My 9 p.m. reservation left Los Angeles at 9:45 and the price went up to $17.85. The only nice thing about a plane to Las Vegas is that it brings you home. What a pleasant change from the terrible Smog in Los Angeles. George and Dorothy Guralnik two real nice friends were on the plane, glad to be home after their Mexican vacation.

The new T'bird show "MADAME" opens tonight. I wouldn't miss it. The rarity is that this is the first time a show opens in the Las Vegas Thunderbird and then moves to New York. Vince Anselmo the P.R. man at the T'bird will keep us informed about the exciting new happenings - we are happy this dynamic guy is at the helm.

I'll close the Kolumn with the lady politician who rang my doorbell to ask me to support her. She was flabbergasted when I said "Sorry lady I have been married for years."

More Kabaret Next Week.
