I get a bang every 4th of July. I know it is Independence day. There's something unusual going on at my house, haven't had a fight with my wife for 4 days.

This guy Bernie Allen has to be the most explosive comedian we ever met. I walked into the Corral Lounge and he chased me out because I asked for his autograph on a blank check.

Many of us visit Hudson Cleaners because they do the finest work in town. I also go there because every afternoon the shop in Somerset Shopping Center is full of Showpeople who give me the latest gossip.

A stop at the Circus Circus sometimes seems like an all day affair. I took some friends there and they wouldn't leave because they were having so much fun.

The sound of good music fills the Blue Room of the Tropicana now that Roger Williams' great piano is there. I'll never forget when the piano tuner stopped at my neighbor's house and they said "we didn't call for a piano tuner". The piano tuner told them that Al Kirschner is paying for it. They are having their child learn how to play the piano.

Dink Freeman the comic at the Frontier is fantastic at dialect stories without getting offensive. His funniest off-stage is about the Funeral cortage in New England where he asked a Vermonter: "Who died?" The Vermonter replied "The guy in the first car".

The Doodletown Pipers are the most refreshing sound in the Frontier Lounge. I enjoyed it, I hope you do also. As usual, leave it to Harry James to come up with something great. He outdid himself with wonderful wonderful jazz.

As we laughers say stop in to see the Happy Jesters at the Desert Inn, that is if you enjoy laughing. I hesitate to advise you old timers to go upstairs to the Sky Room, but actually the dancing is good for you. Besides you get a chance to dance with your wife. Think back now, when is the last time you danced with your wife?

For a study in beautiful Anatomy the girls in the Dunes Casino De Paris make the Dunes a wonderful night school.

Marty Robbins at the Bonanza belts out a good Country and Western tune. When I caught him he also entertained us with a Hawaiian song which every one in the audience enjoyed.

My ever loving gave me a grieved glance as she complained: "You forgot my birthday. I asked her: "how old aren't you?"

Don't miss Tony Bennett at Caesars Palace, he is still the most sentimental singer who comes to Las Vegas. The proof is that the young folks want to go there.

The saddest thing I heard about a show in town is that it had a happy ending-everybody was glad it was over. (No-I won't tell you what show it was, but the closing notice is up.)

wife or husband lets you get away.

Hey you want to taste some unusual food-try the South Pacific, the new Chef is a genius. The Oriental food lovers are making this a hangout as we do. Its handy too. On Convention Center Drive, between the Stardust and Landmark.

I'll close with happy Independence to you - if your
