KIRSCHNER COVERS ABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

Today is July 11th -- in numerical circles this means 7-11. Our suggestion is that you bet these numbers today. If you lose its because you're not lucky just like me. Join the club.

We have often been told that the Sands Copa Room serves fine food. Well the Gourmets are also being served Gorme-Eydie that is, Steve Lawrence has to be the luckiest guy in the world. A man blessed with all his talent tied up to one of the world's finest singers. Imagine all that extra good music in one family. Stop in to catch Soloman Burke in the Celebrity Theatre. We always do because we enjoy good entertainment. (ED NOTE: And any Soloman can't be all bad. J.T.)

There has been talk about beautifying the Strip. Just a suggestion please take a good long look at Casino Center. There isn't a single billboard. On the Strip there are so many billboards you can't see the goolooking hotels. We think planting grass and trees is not as important as removing the ugliness first.

One of the famous new shows on the Strip reminds me of the Oldie "Who was that lady I saw you with last night?" "That was no lady that was my brother".

Danny Thomas at the Internationally famous LAND-MARK was a real delight. Chalk up another showplace where we can take the kids without being embarrassed. Jimmy Durante another family favorite is the current headliner.

The beautiful cocktail girls at Caesars are just too much. The Gallerea is the favorite hangout for the boozers and the losers. D. D. Cotton and Doris Leis always go out of their way to make a loser feel a little better. By the way Doc Konic from Caesars Palace tells me that Mini Skirts are a new American Revelation. If they get any shorter lets call it a Navel observatory.

We hope you get a chance to catch Sloopy and the Red Barons in the Fremont Carnival Room. She is barrel of an even tho' she weighs less than 100 pounds. Novelite Joe Mayer is her ever-loving.

Vic Damone, my favorite singer, opened night before last. The Frontier Circle F lounge will be jammed with romantic couples while he is there. Xenia McMillan said "I am allergic to mink, I get upset everytime I see another woman wearing one."

After seeing that wonderful sweet Charity a few days ago in the Cinerama I have to take back all the bad remarks about the movies. Most of you remember about two months ago we said that the movie industry had made great strides, first they moved, then they talked now they smell. I apologize.

Now we can have all day fun at the Sahara because the Treniers are there. If you have trouble getting in to see this great group ask everybody's friend Frank Portnoy. He can probably arrange it. Frank asked me, "How Cum they don't have frozen Radio dinners for people who don't have T.V. Last Thursday we decided to watch and listen to both Dean Martin and Tom Jones at the same time on T.V. We enjoyed Dean on our color set and were entertained by Jones on our small set. They are both great. Martin is still the master, for we the older group. However, I must admit that the women in my home claimed that Jones excited them more.

We must give an accolade to Al Benedict at the Landmark for getting my favorite sea food chef to move over to the hotel with him. I'm talking about Berube. My nephew Dean Blatt from New York thanked me for the trip to stay at the Landmark on his Honeymoon this past week. He is also a Frankie Avalon fan, and for a sentimental journey we would agree with Jimmy the Greek, the Landmark is great.

I took my visitors to hear Bombara sing some operatic arias, and enjoyed his wonderful garlic food. Fortunately there were no divorces because husbands and wives ate the same foods and didn't become objectionable to each other. I recall when I was a kid (oh so many years ago) my Gutseilika mother used to put a necklace with Garlic buds around my neck (where else would
