thority, who recently returned from an extended tour of Israel. The Las Vegas session is one of a few selected stops in a tour by the Israeli colonel to acquaint the American and Canadian public with the necessity of establishing recreation centers for combat, front-line soldiers on leave.

Several of these centers, sponsored by other countries are already in operation. Col. Laor's chore is to acquire an additional $600,000 for a million dollar facility in Beersheba. More than $400,000 has already been pledged.

Among the entertainers who have agreed to perform at Caesars Palace are Shecky Greene, Jack E. Leonard and Hank Henry.

Among the prominent citizens supporting the event are Maj. Gen. R. G. Taylor, Commanding Officer at Nellis Air Force Base; Bill Weinberger, Jerry Zorawitz and Larry Snow of Caesars Palace; Carl Cohen and Charles Kandell of the Sands; Sid Wyman of the Dunes, and others.

A documentary motion picture will be shown, with Col. Laor, a 25-year army man, delivering the commentary. No tickets are necessary. All are welcome. For further information, call Maj. Kaye at 735-6271. (SEE YOU THERE.)

LONDON (WNS) -- Dr. Nahum Goldmann, president of the World Jewish Congress, denied that he had been conducting diplomatic activities without consulting Israeli leaders. An Israeli newspaper alleged that the former president of the World Jewish Congress was warned by the Jewish Agency to stop criticizing Israeli diplomatic policies because it was harmful to Israel's cause.
