Trini Lopes, what a man. What a performer. His guitar, his voice style and he never stops moving. We are indebted to Jimmy the Greek Snyder for the tip to visit the Landmark showroom to catch this superior performer. The various people who watched and listened to Trini were all thrilled. Then we went upstairs to the Top of the Landmark to be present at the Fay McKay presentation. She is absolutely terrific. Here is a lady that entertains without filth. She sings better than most and I saw nobody leave the room while she was on.

I love the approach my niece Sarah gets from her husband Dean (newlyweds) She asks him how do you like the corned beef, he looks up lovingly as he is eating and says did you actually buy this at Foxy's yourself?

Elvis worked very hard the night I saw him. As usual the girls squealed with delight at his gyrations. A packed room is the proof that he has appeal. Emilio the Maitre d at the International was extremely pleasant and made sure we had a good viewing and listening spot. Sammy Shore in the comedy spot does a good job warming up the audience for the Elvis appearance. If you are a baccarat player don't forget to say hello to Mr. Vernon who takes care of this action.

Dr. & Mrs. West are justly proud of niece Sylvia Dunn, a beautiful voice and a beautiful face. Sorry fellers she's still too young for show-biz. Dottie West claims she will be ready in a couple of years. The Las Vegas Voice and I agree she has talent.

Line Renaud, producer of the show "Flesh" at the Bonanza Hotel, besides being talented has to be one of the most gracious ladies we have ever met. Do you know she sent some very fine French Wine to my home. We all loved her production and this show has to run a long time.

Neil and Susan Cooper (keno shift boss at the Stardust) just brought their first born Dana Leigh home. Fighting weight at present is 6 lbs, 9 ounces.

Just heard a rumor that Nuncle Price (Hacienda Showgirl) is marrying a Texas millionaire. I wager she'll start teaching him some nice Jewish expressions like "Do you all want some of that there Matzoh Ball soup?"

Being part of the older generation we prefer dancing to the Ted Fio Rita Orchestra in the Skyroom at the Desert Inn. He plays the nice sweet music that makes you want to dance. If you like real good Dixie Land Jazz, George Rock in the Silver Slipper is your bag. Some of the new generation remarks sometimes bewilder me. A dear friend told me his wife had hit a $12,500. Keno ticket and she split. I asked him if that meant she gave
