KIRSCHNER OVERS ABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

Labor Day Week-end, I guess this is the end of a hot hot summer, I don't understand why Al insists that we visit all the Girlie shows. He claims they are all his bosom buddies. From the above you can gather that he took his annual trek to San Diego and the Delmar race track, and from the above you know that I am writing for my husband who is a boy and I am a girl. Not too young but not too old. Despite what my old man says (knock - knock) we both still enjoy dancing and comedians.

Its true that he and his friend Joe Delaney love Dixieland music, but I'm still a sweet music fan. I like the sleepy sound of Perry Como, the dulcet tones (herr such on) of Vic Damone and the thrilling trilling of Julie London. Norm Crosby at the Sahara breaks up my everloving and Al looks at me with astonishment when I say this guy should go back to grade school to learn English.

Please don't miss the Esquivel show at the Stardust, brand new and very good. The music is great of course, but the girls and the special effects are wonderful. My Al leans towards one particularly pretty girl Yvonne De Bourbon. He claims its a fatherly interest. I agree she's pretty and talented but we already have three daughters. Thank you Frank Bella for seeing to it that we were comfortable (he's the Maitre De).

We won't be able to write a review of the Flower Drum Song at the Thunderbird-until next week, but we know it must be good because nobody ever repeats a loser. Just got the word from sweet singer Dick Moll (lead in the Lido Show) that good friend Margo Mansbergh is feeling much better. Please get well so that we can see you strutting and dancing on stage again.

Hey girls if you want a thrill go see Fay McKay upstairs in the Landmark. She is a warm wonderful entertainer. She is a little on the heavy side and my roommate was worried that no one was on the other side of the room and that perhaps this beautiful tall skinny building might topple. He's nuts.

Al claims that even tho' Thanksgiving is a time for turkey, Nyeela in the Tropicana Blue Room is his favorite all year round Turkish dish. My only comment is go see her. She doesn't need dressing.

At the insistence of Jimmy the Greek Snyder we tried the Oriental food at the Top O the Landmark. It is wonderful, and the service is really great.

Kitty Rapue and her Sonny brought their Sweater Queen to the Somerset Shopping Center. We must say their taste in youthful looking clothes is exquisite.

Jackie Heller talked us into a Celebrity Room at the Sands visit, to listen to Buddy Greco. Buddy is better than ever. It was only a short while back that he shared the stage with another Buddy called Hackett. How the time has passed since I enjoyed Greco in Atlantic City and good old Philadelphia, my home town.

Had a wonderful visit with Airlon from the Mel-Aire Bridal Shoppe on Fremont Street. No I didn't go there to try on Bridal Gowns. The young lady I was with did and she and her bridesmaids were very happy with
