Well the Labor Day week-end is over. The trip to the DelMar racetrack was a very bad idea for me. The only one that should follow the horses is a man with a shovel and broom. Ran into a cashier from Vegas at the track and when I asked him what he was doing there he said he was trying to balance the books. Bonanza's FLUSH is one of the most entertaining shows I have ever seen. That Nancy Austin is just too much. She is fun all the way. Bill Fanning and the rest of the group make this a wonderful hour of entertainment. A discussion about Horoscope, reminded me that we have to daily newspapers, the horoscope in the morning paper advised me to ask my friend for a loan. The afternoon horoscope said don't bother to ask him he won't give it to you.

Mrs. Mike Feinberg (Naomi) read the name Rabbi Pauker in my column and tracked me down through Leo Wilner from our Temple Beth Shalom. It seems Rabbi Pauker was her Rabbi in Long Island. I gave her my nephew Norman Pauker's phone number in Los Angeles. This is another service of your Israelite. Mike is an executive at Caesars Palace.

Loved that Barbara Eden at the Frontier. We never knew she could sing so well. She is very attractive and even the women liked her. This is a real tribute. I would say that according to all the male T.V. watchers who see Barbara as Genie they all agreed that if they ever get marooned in a bottle Barbara is their first choice.

Pat Leo, genial dealer at the Riviera, is heartbroken as we all are at the untimely passing of one of our ring greats undefeated Rocky Marciano. One of the other passengers Frank Farrel, was a close friend of Pat's and this doubly broke him up.

Just got word from Irwin Kishner that to-night, right after services in our Temple Beth Shalom, we are installing our new officers and Board members. Besides paying tribute to dedicated people who give of their time and effort to serve the Jewish Community, you would do well to attend the beautiful services which start at 8:30 P.M. Champagne will be served during the Oneg Shabbat. Please attend and bring a friend.

We don't think its fair to Nancy Sinatra that she had to follow two top performers like Barbra and Elvis. She is good and is going to be better.

Didn't you love the column that D. A. George Franklin wrote while Hank Greenspun (Sun) was on vacation? Our thinking is that Mr. Franklin is in the wrong business. He should become a writer. He proved conclusively that with all the taxes and politicians running our lives that it hardly pays to get out of bed in the morning. He claims that you have to pay for everything. We pay, he said taxes on the bed we sleep in, the alarm that wakes us up, the food we eat, the clothes we wear, the transportation that takes us to work, the work we do and we also have to pay taxes for the defense of the man that burglarises and might even murder us. What a pleasant thought we pay taxes in advance just in case someone thinks we are ready for armed robbery and if the criminal can't pay then we are in the position of guaranteeing that we will pay for his defense.

In a lighter note my favorite member of the T.V. Show Hawaii Eye Connie Stevens, is at the Landmark Hotel. Don't miss her, she sings better than ever - and sings better than most. That Eddie Fisher is star prone, he has had so many fantastic roommates who are stars I would say he has an inside track on what makes a star. He started with Debby Reynolds, followed up with Liz Taylor and then came Connie Stevens the current headliner at the Famous Landmark Hotel.

Damon Runyon would have given anything to see Shirley Temple appointed to the United Nations. I can just picture her doing the "Good Ship Lollypop" for the communist contingent. The next
