LOUIS NYE, HELEN FORREST IN TROP BLUE ROOM

Puckish Louis Nye moves his brilliant, offbeat humor into the Blue Room of Hotel Tropicana in a three-week headlining stint that also spotlights Helen Forrest in her Tropicana debut.

In the Tropicana Theatre Restaurant, the 1969 Folies Bergere continues as America's most popular import production. The Parisian spectacular now is in its eleventh year in the main Tropicana showroom. SUPPORT YOUR LAS VEGAS ISRAELITE NOW IN ITS 5TH YEAR OF CONTINUOUS PUBLICATION.

the greatest. The Jack Soo is a real Meshugena. He does so many crazy shtikluch. This show can run forever and we locals should encourage our visitors not to miss this Rogers and Hammerstien musical comedy. Incidentally no matter what the other hotels claim the Thunderbird was the first to inaugurate a musical comedy. If my memory serves me right Dave Victorson was the entertainment director when Flower Drum first opened. Mr. Vince Anselmo, P. R. man at the T'bird, has something great to publicise. Please don't miss this show this is pure entertainment all the way and its good family fare besides. I give it four * stars, Jack Soo, Elaine Dunn, Alvin Ing and Yaw Shaw Tung.

We loved when the politician called up to ask if we had called him a crock, when he said no. He questioned: "Well who did?" Our reply was it must have been the other newspaper down the street because we never print stale news.

That droll comedian Louis Nye has a fantastic local following. We never miss him because we enjoy laughing. Get news for you, this funnyman can keep any large room in stitches. The Blue Room at the Tropicana where he is presently packing them in proves he is great. I can't even repeat his jokes because of his inimitable way of putting over a piece of humor. See him.

I don't think its right to pull to rug from under the Governor.

More Kirschner Kabaret next week.

move for our beloved president to build up respect for our country is to appoint Myron Cohen to become Ambassador to Egypt.

My favorite insurance adjuster tells this lady that he can't give her money for her stolen fur coat, but that he had arranged for me to replace it. When she heard this she said please cancel the life insurance for my husband.

Had occasion to entertain out-of-town guest Muriel and Milt Davidson from New York and at the urging of Murray Moskowitz Maitre D' we took them to see Casino De Paris. They were thrilled. The friendly attitude of the employees at the Dunes encouraged the visitors to say they would come back to Las Vegas again and again. Please say Hello to Billy Snyder (host) and Nick George (pit blackjack) at the Dunes. These are two guys that go out of their way to be nice.

Retailer Phil Cohn from Durham, N. C., while visiting here, tells me that a lady brought back a pair of pants and said "these pants are no good they don't fit," when Phil asked her if she wanted a refund she said "Heck no I don't want a refund I WANTS MY MONEY BACK."

Its a shame that Mark J. Berent is only here for a few more days until he goes back to his last year at Morris Harvey College in West Virginia. I can't forget the time his professor said "Mark you can't sleep in my class." Smart Marks' reply was a classic. "If you ddidn't talk so loud I could."

Running into Stevie Weiss at the Mannis Fur Shop in Caesars Palace reminded me that his granfather Sam Mannis and I have been friends for 32 years. His son - in - law Gibby Weiss looks great - they are nice people.
