

LONDON (WNS) -- The 11th annual Congress of the Socialist International attended by leaders of Socialist Parties in 33 nations has adopted a resolution on the Mid-east calling for a settlement that includes "the absolute right of Israel to exist as a sovereign state. "Other points included mutually agreed frontiers as a bases for peace and security, reasonable disarmament, free passage through international waterways and a humanitarian solution of the refugee problem. Israeli Premier Golda Mir attended the meeting as a delegate, Egyptian representatives were accredited only as observers.
