13 to 18, in incipient juvenile delinquency stages. This institution was begun by public subscription and is now advancing into a million-dollar juvenile detention facility in Las Vegas. The Justice is currently serving on the Governor's special committee on juvenile problems.

ARAB LEADERS HAVE HEADACHES

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Arab leaders are continuing to have serious political problems as a result of the lack of progress towards a settlement of the Mideast crisis, according to reports by Western newsmen reaching Jerusalem.

Egyptian and Syrian leaders wound up three days of talks in Cairo and apparently agreed on the use of force rather than diplomacy to eject Israel from occupied territories.

According to a London Times report, President Gamal Abdel Nassar conferred with Syrian President, Dr. Nured Al Atassi together with the foreign ministers of both countries in an effort to reconcile their differences over Egyptian acceptance and Syrian rejection of the Security Council's Nov. 22, 1967 resolution on the Middle East. The difference is expected to be narrowed by Syrian endorsement of a recent Egyptian statement that a peace settlement is impossible because of obstruction by Israel and a "non-political" solution is the only way for the Arabs to achieve their objectives.

A principal concern of the Cairo talks was how to enable the Syrian Army to play a bigger role in renewed fighting than it did in the 1967 war.

The possibility that the growing Chinese-Russian conflict may result in a serious reduction of Soviet aid to the Arab states in causing concern to Arab leaders, the Christian Science Monitor of Boston reported.

"Arab leaders are wondering whether the growing Sino-Soviet conflict will seriously reduce Moscow's support to its Arab friends in the Middle East.

As for Red China, the London Daily Telegraph reported it has offered to send "volunteer" troops and "all the arms you want" to Palestinian guerrillas fighting Israel. But the Guerrillas so far have rejected the efforts being made by Chinese Communist diplomats in Arab capitals, because they have all the arms and money they can handle
