It seems all I have to write in this column is about people ill or who have passed away. Just heard the news that a former resident and friend Dr. Sam Wick, who has resided in Phoenix, Arizona for a number of years, passed away. His widow, Lillian can be reached at 6767 North Seventh, Phoenix, Arizona. My condolences Lillian.

The happiest senior citizen just has to be George Rosencrantz, who doesn't look that old and neither does he act it. But nevertheless he is very proud of being of age.

If a Blue Glass case is found or has been found, please get in touch with Lucille Elliot at 736-6322. Her mother lost her glasses in the vicinity of Sahara Avenue around Commercial Center. They are prescription glasses and not of any use to anyone but the wearer. Thanks.

Mrs. Jackie (Didi) Fields, wife of Tropicana hotel Executive and former boxing great, passed away after being ill for sometime. Her survivors are Edward Skoug of Bloomfield, N. J., a son, Andre Godart of NYC, a daughter Michele of Las Vegas, a brother Edward Skoug, Jr. also of Bloomfield and his husband Jackie. Internment took place in Woodlawn cemetery. Rest in peace, Dear Didi.

In typing the news of my becoming a grandmother, how I omitted Nat Stadler's name in the article is beyond me, but I did and want my readers to know that Nat is Francine's adopted dad and so this makes him a grandfather too, a more proud one I have yet to meet and see.

For the many who know Shirlee Schivo, would like you to know that she has married John Mohar of San Francisco, where she will be making her home. We all wish you much happiness, Shirlee.
