

NETCONG, N.J. -- The American Jewish Congress today called on the Netcong Board of Education to "discontinue at once the improper, divisive and harmful practice" of prayer reading in the local schools.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Minister of Police Elishu Sasson told the Knesset in his annual report that crimes of violence and crimes among youth were increasing in Israel.

NEW YORK -- Essays dealing with Jewish literature in Persia, Israel and European countries are among the articles featured in Volume 27 of the Jewish Book Annual, published by the Jewish Book Council of the National Jewish Welfare Board. The 227-page yearbook of Jewish literary creativity also lists and briefly describes 830 books of Jewish interest published in the United States, Israel and Great Britain during the twelvemonth period ending May 1969. Copies of the tri-lingual Jewish Book Annual are available at $6.00 each from the Jewish Book Council, National Jewish Welfare Board, 15 East 26th Street, New York, N. Y. 10010.

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- As the United Nations opened its 24th General Assembly in which the Mideast crisis is expected to be a major topic of debate, Secretary General U Thant voiced his belief that any direct Arab-Israeli talks were out of the question for now.

PARIS (WNS) -- The International Federation of Airline Pilots Association has voted to hold a world-wide 24-hour pilots walkout unless Syria releases the two Israelis it is holding following an Arab hijacking of an American airline. The pilots are demanding international action to stop such hijacks and have indicated they expected the United Nations to take action on the matter during the General Assembly's fall session.

BOSTON (WNS) -- Boston College, a Jesuit university, will conduct its second annual archaeological expedition to Israel in cooperation with the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, Tel Aviv University and the Israel Exploration Society.
