KIRSCHNER COVERS ABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

The hairdressers association in Las Vegas better not call this the beginning of National Hairdressers week because Lanie Kazan is back with the same hairdo. Her new photograph shows the same unkempt hair - but no breast works, I looked very closely and her naval observatory was unobserved. Her singing was magnificent. She is truly a star.

This reporter after reading the Cosby story here and the Examiner version must say "Its easy to resist liking a man like Cosby who insults me and my neighbors."

My favorite C.P.A., Irving Haut, was visited by his Thank Goodness Estelle and Irving Haut were not home during the visitation. That horrifying incident in Cincinnati where 4 Humans were killed for a few paltry dollars gives the message. Irving's friendly neighborhood burglar should visit his office so that he can save money on his tax return, incidently is burglary considered a capital gain?

Anyone who visits Las Vegas without seeing the Lido show at the Stardust is missing a must. Just received a phone call from Max Amberger to make sure he can get in to see this fun extravaganza tonight.

Johnny Selinsky, my young spy, claims he and his friends had a wild time with Canned Heat at the Ice Palace. To quote Johnny "They deserve 3 G's - Good-Groovey - Great". Johnny and associates are waiting impatiently for the next Way Out Group that Mike Tell brings to Vegas. (ED NOTE: It's the Doors, Sat, Oct. 4).

They say that all good things come to be who waits - Smarty Marty Kane waited home for 4 days and neither Raquel Welch nor Elizabeth Taylor showed up.

Disrespect for law and order has never been more evident than when our Good

BEAUTIFUL JACQUELINE DOUGUET IS JUST ONE OF THE DOZENS OF THE DAZZLING GIRLS SEEN IN THE DESERT INN'S MILLION DOLLAR PRODUCTION OF "PZAZZ '70". THE NEW MUSICAL SUPERSPECTACULAR IS NOW IN ITS 13TH RECORD-SMASHING WEEK AT THE HOTEL'S ELEGANT CRYSTAL ROOM. SHOWTIMES ARE 8:00 P.M. AND MIDNIGHT.

Guy decided to appoint two guys to one judge seat. I looked at the seats of these two gents and would suggest that someone solicit some furniture company to donate a Love Seat to fit the occasion. I'm only kidding Guy.

When You Remember
Love. That sweet and treasured kiss
And the touch of fingers, gossamer light,
Gently, gently upon the cheek.
Sinatra sings the songs of love to be remembered.
