TONY BENNETT AT CAESARS OCT. 9

- I think you should also appoint Lovable Paul Price to the same seat, after all we don't want our judges to work too hard. Perhaps they can have three shifts so that something will be accomplished as D. A. George Franklin wants.

Marty Nathanson flipped when he took his Vivian to see the Happy Jesters in the Desert Inn Lady Luck Lounge. That Ken Cornell with his inimitable faces breaks everyone up. Don't miss the Jesters - fun all the way.

Visited Nino our barber at the Dunes for my annual ear lowering and while there he told me a likely tale in his incomparable "Harvard" diction. He has his own language - half Italian half English and half understandable, but all lovable. I shouldn't repeat this but here goes. When the Catholic priest asked the Rabbi "Why don't you modernize and try some of this delicious Virginia ham?" Rabbi X replied, "I made up my mind I'm going to eat at your wedding."

Raul of Vegas in the Somerset Shopping Center tells of one of his clients who gave him a tip on a railroad stock and guaranteed it would move. Perhaps if he gave him an airline stock he would say it would fly.

Bobby Ramsen in the Blue Room at the Tropicana certainly livens up that spot. Old favorites the 4 Freshman and Si Zentner made this a very pleasant evening for Master Furrter Frank Robb, Sol Wolf, and myself and our respective spouses.

I asked a certain comedian if all genius's were conceited? He said "No, I'm not."

We're very happy that Bea David is feeling fine again and that she and her Sam have decided to stay in Las Vegas. These are real nice people. I gotta get Sam in a gin game real soon. He's one of the few guys who doesn't beat me all the time.

I must tell you what this little Prusta Prosti told me. "Free love is destroying private enterprise" My reply was you can bet your %#$ on that.

Adair & Sam Axler, what a beautiful couple. Did you know that he just retired after 14 years at the Sands hotel? They gave him a wonderful party. He has promised to come into my shop to reminisce about his tenure at the Sands and also the time he spent at the famous Ramanoff restaurant where he catered to the stars, Sam tells me over the phone, when he asked the judge did you ever try whisky the judge said "No, but I tried several people who did".

I think its a wonderful idea that the Friars Club in Beverly Hills honored Milton Berle. Our own Alan King the Sands laughmaster was the master of ceremonies. Our sides are still aching from the laugh's. Did you see the show on Wednesday over N.B.C. on KORK-TV? It was great.

No wonder Joe Delaney is such a sweet guy. His two middle names are Peter and Paul. I'm sure his Roberta agrees with me.

Believe it or not when Herman Karp explains to his Ruthie why he got home so late she always says that's a fishy story. (Yes Carp is a fish.)

Ann and Milton Frank (Frontier Hotel) had Aunt Fannie Weinstein, from the

J & M Deli in Denver, visit. With her was daughter Frieda. I am always happy when Aunt Fannie comes to town because she brings me the real Jewish Ravioli. Needless to say my Miriam had a ball by not cooking and I gorged myself. I only hope Aunt Fannie and daughter Frieda go home winners. To date they think they were playing 22 until I explained that Blackjack is 21.

I asked Frank Neill how cum there is no 0 in front of your name like all other self respecting Irishmen and he said no family has more right to have an 0 in front of our names because we owe everybody.

Frank Ivey (Landmark More Kabaret Next week.

Tony Bennett, that rare masterpiece: the singer's singer, the musician's singer and the listener's singer, returns to Caesars Palace with his heart and spectacular musicianship Thursday, October 9, when he opens a Executive) tells me that when he asked a friend about the difference between Heaven and Hell, his friend says I can't give you an opinion because I have friends in both places.

Airion from the Mel-Aire Bridal shop called to tell us that she loves the Authentic Mexican food in the Horseshoe Club. I owe Benny Binion a visit and if Benny remembers he still owes me a set of Antlers for my den as he promised when we had dinner together at Vic Silvagni's house. The Binions are nice people and believe it or not their gambling stakes are the highest in Nevada.

two - week engagement in the hotel's Circus Maximus theatre-restaurant.

Bennett, who signed a lifetime contract with Caesars Palace during his last engagement at the famed hotel-casino earlier this year, is currently celebrating two decades in show business.

Sharing the Caesars Palace spotlight with Bennett this time and helping him celebrate 20 years of singing success will be Louie Bellson and his orchestra, and comedian Stu Gilliam.

Frank Sinatra, with special guests Jose Greco & Company, and comedians Pat Henry and Stanley Myron Handelman, are currently headlining in the Circus Maximus through October 8.
