

ISRAELI LEADERS REACH POLITICAL ACCORD AFTER OCT. ELECTIONS

'OY VEY-GAS'

chirped: "Why step on the cricket, Lady? He was just settin' there in the grass groovin' when these people built a whole hotel around him. How would you feel?"

Israel's 71-year-old Premier Golda Meir, now visiting the U. S., enjoys support of 73% of her people, according to a poll. And, she has united her Labor Party as well as her country - and free-thinking freedom lovers over the globe.

Pat Paulsen sez: "I'm opposed to sex education in the schools. Let the kids learn it where we did -- in the gutter!"

An Israeli Genral claims that the Arab leaders have a master plan to discourage Israel's spirit. They think that killing 10,000 Jews will turn the trick; and they've already snuffed out 500, half civilians. We guess they haven't read about Hitler, the Inquisition, the Romans, the Philistines, etc. After 4,000 years and tens of millions murdered, Jews won't give up their first homeland easy. Never before has a speck of land afforded any Jews, regardless of origin, instant citizenship the moment he steps on Israel's soil. They won't step back.

Don't discount Ted Kennedy's nomination -- via a genuine draft -- in 1972, despite his current problems. Three years is a long time, and no other democrat can beat Nixon.

We're glad incumbent Mayor Carl Stokes won the Cleveland primary. Two years ago he beat the great-grandson of President Wm. Howard Taft, becoming the first Negro Mayor of a big city. And Mr. Stokes is the great-grandson of a slave!

Christensen's Jewelers, after more than three decades in LV, is a most pleasant gem joint. Vern, one of three Christensen brothers, is warm and congenial -- and like the whole family, 100% honest. A rare jewel.

Don't miss the DOORS this Sat. Night at Norm Mann's civic-minded ICE PALACE, presented by Mike Tell. In eight years of show producing, this will be Mike's Record-breaking success, until of course his next extravaganza.

Don't forget the Israel Bon Dinner Oct. 12th at CP. We enjoyed Jay Sarno the other day, as usual. Others plette donations, but Jay whips out a bankroll and peels off thousands for Israel! He's a legend in his own time....

Vive Les Girls is the only "Main room" full-scale production in a lounge. And stay later for Mitzi Walker and Babby Hall also at the Dunes Lounge, a talented two some.

Congrats to newlyweds Richard and Beverly Horowitz, Israelite subscribers and old friends. Well, Beverly's not so old.

We applauded when the eno-Nazis led by Adolph Von Thadden didn't get a single seat in the German election. One Adolph per century is enough.

"Staircase" starring Richards Burton and Harison, both straight as an arrow, is a moving story of two aging homosexual barbers in London who've lived together thirty years. It's torture, comedy, frustration, misery and sadism. Most important, it's a super-realistic breakthrough on the screen.

Alan King told his doctor that his arm hurt when he moved it. "So don't move it," doc replied.

That's TELLin' 'em!

TEL AVIV (WNS)-- Leaders of the Israeli Labor Party and its rebellious Rafi faction have reached an accord under which Rafi members are expected to remain within the ILP.

The agreement calls for Gen. Moshe Dayan to retain the portfolio of Defense Minister in the new government to be formed after the October elections. In addition, Rafi will be given another ministerial post, not counting the Labor Ministry currently held by Rafi member Yosef Almogi.

Rafi was also assured of proportional representation in the party's various bodies on an equal basis with the Achdut Avodah faction.

The party plank of the occupied territories, now states that "permanent settlement" should be hastened and the government, when deciding on sites for settlement, should be guided by the security needs of the State. The term "permanent" is opposed by Mapam, the left-wing labor faction which has joined in a political alignment with the labor Party. But inasmuch as the platform does not refer specifically to the occupied territories, it is assumed Mapam will accept the plank. Gen. Dayan's suggestion that Israeli law be applied to the occupied territories, was turned down. Instead the platform reads, "In every matter in which it might be required for security reasons, for economic reasons or for social improvement, the existing laws (in the occupied areas) may be amended or replaced by orders issued by the (military) governors."

Likewise, Gen. Dayan's advocacy of the economic integration of the occupied territories with Isreal, was rejected. The platform will say that the government should be empowered to coordinate, integrate, unify or merge the basic economic networks of Israel and the occupied territories in accordance with the requirements of various regions.
