

OF THE STARS

that were turned away, we think a larger auditorium will be needed.

Pretty dancer Lynette Lewis in the Lido show at the Stardust just gave a very cute observation. She says "you can't choose your relatives, but that's fair because they probably don't like you either."

New P.R. man Mr. Roscoe at the Bonanza has to be commended. I still don't know when I stop in to see the three wonderful revues, he is still on the job. Must also give an accolade to Line Rinaud for now being a full time producer with two good shows 'Flesh and Crazy Horse' drawing the crowds into the Bonanza. Don't miss Fraeda Wallace in the Lounge. She is a ton of talent.

We must thank Patricia Hurd for picking up a load of Kids clothes for Child Haven at the Master Furrier shop. We happen to have a few Lieutenants who collect unused, clean wearables for the poor kids. The last batch was brought in by Brad Phinik. These poor kids also need toys. Drop them off at my store and we will see to it that they are delivered. Incidentally Mrs. Hurd came in to deliver the items to Child Haven because she is one of the steady listeners on the Joe Delaney show. Thanks Joe.

Jim Parker the Versatile Mad Moustache is raving about the Cotton Club Revue at the Castaways. I agree with him. I have only seen it once but will see it again next week when old friends who saw the original in New York come in next week.

George Rosencrantz claims a good husband always remembers his wife's birthday, but forgets which one it is.

Don't miss Bottoms Up if you are out in the afternoon. We saw it last Sunday and had a ball. I think this and the afternoon fun at Circus Circus are outstanding. Burt Mold tells me that there is no disgrace in being poor, except that you get awful hungry.

According to your personal taste, October 12th, Columbus Day is being celebrated with a big bash at the Italian American Club and the Israeli Bond dinner at Caesars Palace. Both wonderful causes and both deserving of our support. More Kabaret Next Week.

LOMBARDO AT TROP

The sweet and heavenly sounds of Guy Lombardo and His Royal Canadians ring out in the Blue Room of Hotel Tropicana Friday, Oct. 10, in the opening stanzas of a four-week engagement.

Canada's musical royalty includes four Lombardo's - Guy, Carmen, Lebert and Victor -- along with Kenny Gardner, Cliff Grass, the Lombardo Trio, Tonia Bern-Campbell and Tony Coindreau. Miss Campbell has been featured with the King of Sweet Sounds for the past year and is the first featured female vocalist with the group in 20 years.

Lombardo's uncanny longevity is attributed to his ability to select and then record hits.

Rounding out Blue Room fare is the Page Cavanaugh Trio, while in the Theatre Restaurant the spectacular Folies Bergere rolls on in its 11th year.

Opening in the Blue Room Nov. 7: Rosemary Clooney.
