KIRSCHNER COVERS ABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

Just a few words about the terrible West Side situation that disgraced Las Vegas on National T.V. If we would all reflect that The Lord has shown that he favors neither White nor Black. His favorite color is Green. Look at the grass, look at the leaves and look at our favorite blue sky. If the politicians would only do what I tried to promise when I ran for the city commission there would be street lights, there would be a strong fight against sales taxes on food and most important there would be a stronger effort to concentrate on jobs instead of liquor licenses. It certainly sounds that I am getting ready for next year's campaign. There are acres and acres of empty land in back of my tract home that have beautiful sidewalks and street lights. And the Good

Lord said "Let There be Light."
 Must tell you about a beautiful evening at the Frontier. Good friends Pauline and Eric Tarr (Commercial Fishing Newport Beach) joined us while we enjoyed The Unusual We doing Aquarius and the Great Goulet. Pauline's comment was cute. She said that Goulet's Goulet is great. Miriam's comment shows pure jealousy. She said "If I was Carole Lawrence I'd never let him out of the house". Eric insisted that "outside of Bob Goulet's good looks and beautiful voice he is no better than me" My contention is that only Goulet and Eddie Fisher have that certain something that creates a wonderful feeling of warmth with their audiences. Our Captain Mike Fields has to be the nicest guy. He touted me into taking my friends to hear another Italian singer, Vic Damone. In other words we had a wonderful evening at the Friendly Frontier. Incidentally old friends Dave Kriegler (Brooklyn's worst builder) had trouble getting into the show and nice guy Milt Frank arranged for him to have a wonderful evening also. Incidentally if you have trouble getting in to see and hear Vic Damone please tell Mel Young you are my friend and he will make sure you have a good vantage spot.

 Good friend Irving Haut my favorite C.P.A. had his wife order a white mink jacket (their friendly neighborhood burglar removed her other furs) while Estelle was here. She gave me some wonderful news, Herbert Marshak who I consider one of the best in the piano field in this or any other country has moved to Las Vegas. His new method of teaching is causing my family to buy a piano. His students were Barbara Hutton, Doris Duke and Woolworth Donahue. Well all I can say if my Miriam can't learn Hava Negilah by Chanukah time it will be cold enough for the fireplace to use up the piano.
 Had a good dancing time at the Top 'O' the Strip at the Dunes. The Duck we were served was delicious and then the Orrin Tucker orchestra made us want to dance. After a dutiful turn or two with my spouse, we spotted Roz Grippo (favorite daughter of Jimmy and Frances Grippo) and did what comes naturally. We could have danced all night (Roz was a dance instructor in Miami). Roz being half Jewish and half Italian still can't make up her mind whether chicken or minestrone is better soup.

 Took Marc to the Italian American Club Columbus Day party. He was truly delighted that was arranged by Nick Kelly and Vic Silvagni. Besides a very danceable orchestra led by Jim Duffy everyone was delighted with Nancy Austin, Dave London, Sergio Franchi and a fabulous voice from the waiters that brought the house down. Imagine a waiter leaving his tips to thrill us with a truly operatic performance. Imagine Pat Fontaine being a waiter when he has such a fantastic voice.
 That Hal Morelli is just too much. I didn't mind him calling me the Jewish Walter Winchell, but late at night when he is beating me in a poker game he claims I am a Good Sport because I laugh when he wins. If he ever beats us again Sol, Vic, Nick and I will quit poker for Tiddlywinks.
 Hattie and Ben Beck certainly made Doc Stein and his Winnie feel good by visiting our Las Vegas. Doc Stein gave me a bit of Philosophy that should be passed on "Its a good thing that the Lord made women without a sense of humor so that they can love us instead of laughing at us."
 Hey don't miss Sloopy at the Aladdin Hotel. She is truly a bundle of fun. Her antics keep you laughing and for we oldsters she revives the Roaring Twenty's. This reporter is sorry for Joe Mayer, her everloving bearded Novelite at the Stardust, because Sloopy has to
