leave town so often to answer the demands of her fans in other cities.

Sid Hudson, the cleaner in the Somerset Shopping center tells the story about the remarrried movie star who remarried her first husband.

Love that Totie Fields the Queen of flab, this young lady entertained us by poking fun at herself. It is not surprising that Totie packs the Riviera Lounge. She is fun all the way.

Must give Max Amberger credit for his retort when I asked him if his friend Axelrod has a good opinion of himself. His reply was "Well not exactly, but on his birthday he always sends congratulations to his parents."

Mr. Glaston's assistant, Maxine, has the most pleasant voice over the telephone. Whenever we call the Stardust for a publicity release she is extra obliging. Lets say she is an asset to Las Vegas because she makes our visitors feel they are wanted.

Just received a phone call from Dallas, Nephew, Dr. Bill Berk is coming in for his winter cleaning with his entourage of Texas investors. This time they asked that nice guy Phil Arce, manager of the Sahara Hotel, see to it that they are comfortable while they try their luck.

This reporter owes an apology for overlooking Cella and Barney Schollnick's 29th wedding anniversary that took place on September 15th. They are both such nice people.

We loved the PZAZZ 70 show. Our particular favorite is Loretta St. John who does Apple Annie. The difference in her appearance is fantastic. We are sure the Desert Inn has had many accolades for Loretta's wonderful performance. Danc-

WOODBURY AT CAESARS

Versatile comedian Woody Woodbury returns to Caesars Palace Friday, October 17, as headliner for a month-long engagement in the hotel's new Roman Theatre.

Long established as one of the foremost entertainment personalities in America, Woodbury has become a spokesman for the NOW generation with his fresh and believably honest approach in words, wit and music.

Opening on the same bill with Woodbury and making their Caesars Paace debut will be the blues Crusaders, a fast-rising new singing and musical group founded and managed by Bobby Stevens, group leader of the fabulous Checkmates, Ltd. Mickey Denton, featured singer with the Blues Crusaders, just received Spotlight Magazine's "Singer of the Year" award.

The two acts will join The Sugar Train, a bright, new contemporary singing group which debuts at Caesars Palace Saturday, October 11.

Currently featured in the Roman Theatre are rock 'n roll king Little Richard and comedienne Betty Walker on the night side, and the award winning comedy revue "Bottoms Up '69" after noons.

EL AL ISRAEL TRIP INCLUDES KIBBUTZ TOUR

The Association of Kibbutz, Rest and Guest Houses in Israel has announced a new and unusual type of tour which would include overnight stays at these guest houses, the association, which consists of twenty kibbutzim, has gained a first class reputation for the standard of service offered.

Two of the most popular kibbutzim are Ayelet Hashachar and Nof Ginnossar, which are in the vicinity of the Sea of Galilee, and like most of the guest houses, these have been operating this year at almost 100% capacity.

Kibbutzim dot the Israel landscape from the Golan Heights in the north to the Southern tip of the Negev. They are romantic and visionary, exciting and unique. Rooted in ancient tradition, they live for the present and future.

See life on a kibbutz and see a unique part of Israel. El Al Israel Airlines will fly you to Israel 11 times a week from New York this fall, 7 non-stop. ing upstairs after PZAZZ is a must because Murray Arnold plays for dancing feet,

GAY 90'R 90'S, PALOMINO LIVEN NO. LV.

If it's action and plenty of friendly hospitality you are seeking, then beat a path to North Las Vegas and bask in the warm glow of two exciting nightclubs that are causing locals and tourists to make North Las Vegas the second glittering "Strip." The innovators of this North Las Vegas happening are the Gay 90's Club, where all those heavenly bodies keep things lively, and the Palomino Club - the soul place of Las Vegas - the grooviest dance spot in town.

Paul Perry, congenial owner of both trend - setting clubs, can well be proud of the effect his two crowd-pleasing bistros have had on the economy of North Las Vegas. The action has never been better in North Town, with both the Gay 90's Club and Palomino enjoying SRO business nightly.

Long a favorite of locals and out-of-town visitors, the Gay 90's Club has helped launch the exotic careers of such lovelies as Joni Carson, Suzette summers, MIKI Sharait, Mako Ohta and Baby Doll.

The brand-new Palomino is well on its way to becoming the most "in" spot in Clark County for everyone who digs the "soul" scene.

Opening with the very popular Danny Owens and the Soul Patrol, featuring Mona Margo, the Palomino - the soul palace of Las Vegas - has been packed every evening from its 10:00 pm opening until the early morning.
