In their first seven years the Mets lost 737 games, or over 105 annually.... We're as anti-Communist as anyone, but it was wrong to bar red teacher Angela Davis from UCLA. The best way to turn any student off is for a Commie to explain Communism....

Pres. Nixon never looked so artificial as when he put up his "V" for peace sign while chatting with HHH at the

By JAY TELL The LV Cowboys, led by quarterback Dewey Warren, became the Pacific Division's top team Tuesday beating the Portland Loggers 42-13 as Warren tossed 20 completed passes in 36 attempts, for 274 yards. LV has won six, lost one in the Continental League.

It was the second win over Portland this year. A scant 2,000 braved rain and cold at Cashman Field to root their home pro team to victory. The Cowboys erupted for 21 points in the fourth quarter after a 14-7 half-time score.

Tennessee All-American Warren has 1,528 yards this year, and tossed two touchdown passes against Portland, but was intercepted twice. He also ran for a TD in the third quarter, making it 20-7. LV intercepted Portland's quarterback, Jerry Otterson, three times setting up Cowboy position for TD's. Otterson completed eight for 16 passes, for 193 yards.

Bob Humphreys booted six straight points-after for the Cowboys.
